TO TEST INJUNCTIONS.

Labor Leaders May Go Into Court.

GOMPERS TO TAKE THE FIELD.

Another Determined Effort to Be Made to Get the Fairmont, W. Va., Miners to Quit Work—Clarksburg Men All Out—Strike News.

COLUMBUS, Aug. 10.—President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor and several other prominent labor leaders are expected here today to confer with President Ratchford of the United Mine workers with regard to the matter of testing the injunctions issued against the labor leaders in West Virginia. President Ratchford received advices of an encouraging nature from West Virginia and Kansas. Two more organizers are to be sent to West Virginia at once.

FAIRMONT, W. Va., Aug. 10.—Still another effort is to be made to get the Fairmont district miners out.

Samuel Gompers, Harry Lloyd and James Wood will address mass meetings at this place tomorrow and at Monongah Thursday. The organizers are all greatly encouraged, as all of the Clarksburg end of the district is out.

STRIKE TO BE EXTENDED.

Miners Arranging For a Campaign at the Pennsylvania Railroad Mines.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 10.—Strong efforts are to be made this week to bring out the men at work at the different mines along the Pennsylvania railroad. These mines have been worked to their fullest capacity since the strike began, and coal is being shipped to the local market. The product of these mines has heretofore been sent to the seaboard markets. The Lost Con Fishing club of Carnegie has loaned the miners' organization three tents, which will be used by the strikers who will establish camps while the work of bringing out the men is in progress.

All the Plum Creek miners of the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal company, who have not struck, have been paid, but all who have struck do not receive any money, the company determining to insist on the terms of the contract by which the men agreed to forfeit all the money due them in case they refused to work.

All miners who had a reasonable excuse for attending any of the meetings will be paid. The company has the names of all the men who have been at the meetings and took part in any of the demonstrations, and they will get no money until an explanation is given.

A special dispatch from West Newton says: This week will likely see a determined action of the striking miners to close the mines of the Westmoreland Coal company at Irwin and the Penn Gas Coal company's mine at Gratztown, two miles from here, and equally as determined resistance on the part of the operators and diggers of these mines.

A SUCCESSFUL MARCH.

More Miners Join the Strikers in Wheeling District.

WHEELING, Aug. 10.—Matters have taken a turn in the Wheeling district and the miners are feeling encouraged. A small army of miners from Moundsville and Benwood gathered at the works of the Glendale company, eight miles below the city, and had soon induced the working miners at that plant to come out to a man.

Flushed with their success at this point the strikers, reinforced by the Glendale men and by a body of strikers that had come across the hills from Elm Grove, went to the Boggs Run mines and camped out on the hillside. As the miners came out from their work the strikers took them in and secured their promise to remain out of the mines during the strike if all the men employed by the Boggs Run company would make the same promise.

The army then disbanded, with instructions to assemble at the mouth of the Boggs Run mines to see the other miners and secure their promise to stay out. It is anticipated that this effort to cause a general suspension in the Wheeling district will meet with success.

A demonstration against the Heatherington and Wegee river mines, across the river in the Belmont district, was to have taken place today, but as the Heatherington men came out and joined the strike the plan may be changed.

MARCHING MASSILLON MINERS.

Held a Meeting at Wadsworth and Induced Some Men to Quit.

WADSWORTH, O., Aug. 10.—Over 1,500 miners, who arrived on foot, in wagons, carriages and vehicles of all description, carrying banners and flags, are here. A monster meeting was held in the Hindsdale orchard, attended by 2,000 people. The meeting was called to order by Chairman John Whelan of Wadsworth. The following towns represented by the strikers were present: Massillon, Crystal Springs, North Lawrence, Dalton, West Brookfield, East Greenville, Canal Fulton, Clinton,

Doylestown and Pigeon Run. Speeches were made by district officers of the miners' organization and the following resolutions adopted:

"Resolved, That we, the miners of the Massillon district, have assembled; and be it Resolved, That no coal whatever be produced in this district until the trouble is settled."

As a result of the meeting, 80 miners from Carde & Barrett's mine and Loomis No. 3 have quit work and joined the strikers.

Settled By Hoke Smith.

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 10.—It develops that the settlement of the big strike of the Fulton Bag and Cotton mills operatives was the work of former Secretary of the Interior Hoke Smith.

POPULIST CONVENTION.

The State Delegates to Meet in Columbus Tomorrow.

COLUMBUS, Aug. 10.—W. S. Morgan, of Hardy, Ark., and Abe Steinberger of Girard, Kan., are here to attend the state Populist convention which convenes tomorrow. Mr. Morgan is secretary of the national organization committee of the People's party and Mr. Steinberger is a member of the executive board of the same committee, and the purpose of their visit here is to prevent a fusion between the Republicans and Democrats.

In reply to a question as to what action the state convention would take, Mr. Morgan said:

"I cannot say. I have not been on the ground long enough to learn the situation. Through correspondence with prominent Populists throughout the state, and judging from resolutions passed by some of the county conventions, I presume there will be an effort made to endorse the Democratic state ticket, though why and to what end I am at loss to conjecture."

"Would such action be in line with that of the Nashville conference, and would it meet with the approval of the national organization committee?"

"It would not be in line with anything that is Populist; would be antagonistic to the action of the Nashville conference, and would be opposed by all the power which the national organization committee could command. The object of the national organization committee is to prevent fusion and preserve the party. This is the first effort of any magnitude toward fusion since the national conference, and may therefore be considered as of national importance."

Populist leaders already on the ground claim the non-fusionists will have two-thirds of the delegates to the state convention.

A BRAVE PRISONER.

He Saves a Life at Mansfield and May Be Released.

MANSFIELD, Aug. 10.—An explosion at the power house of the Ohio State reformatory here late Sunday night almost killed the night fireman, Wallace Robinson, and may result in gaining liberty for Prisoner Freer. A ten-inch steam pipe above Robinson's head burst and hot water poured down upon him.

He put up his hands, and both were burned to a crisp. Prisoner Freer, who was helping Robinson, was running to make his escape from a window when he heard the fireman's cry: "For God's sake get me out of here. I am dying."

Freer ran back and at the risk of his own life brought the unconscious fireman through the window to the cool outside. Robinson will recover, thanks to Freer's bravery. Freer's home is in Ashland, although he was sent to the reformatory from Tiffin for larceny. Manager John Baird, who is in the city, says he is in favor of giving Freer his liberty as a reward for his brave act.

STRIKERS SEIZE MINES.

Silver Creek Miners Not Allowed to Go to Work.

AKRON, Aug. 10.—When the miners in the Loomis & Card and Barrett mines, in the Silver Creek district, went to work they found 1,000 men from the vicinity of North Lawrence in possession of the mines and they were not allowed to enter. For a time trouble seemed imminent. Conciliatory speeches on the part of the leaders quieted matters.

A mass meeting was held and resolutions adopted declaring that the miners must not be allowed to work. The strikers claim that they have got all the Silver Creek miners on their side. Every pottery in Akron save one has stopped work on account of lack of fuel, throwing several hundred men out of employment.

Mother McKinley at Lorain.

LORAIN, O., Aug. 10.—Mrs. William McKinley, Sr., and Miss Helen McKinley, mother and sister of the president, are here from Canton. They are the guests of Editor and Mrs. S. L. Bowman, Mrs. McKinley being the grandmother of the latter. Mrs. A. J. Duncan, sister of President McKinley and mother of Mrs. Bowman, is also visiting her daughter here.

A Water That Heals.

CANAL DOVER, O., Aug. 10.—The use of water as a cure-all from the mineral springs on the property of Jacob Horn, of this city, has become the craze here. A stream of water flows steadily from the casing and is declared to be a cure for rheumatism and blood diseases. Fred, son of Phineas Arnold, firebrick manufacturer, is a paralytic and claims to have been marvelously benefited.

A NEW ARMOR PLANT.

Government Board Held a Meeting in Washington.

NUMBER OF SITES OFFERED.

Location Handy to Tidewater and Other Points Must Be Considered—Offers to Sell the Present Plants to Be Investigated by the Board.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—A special naval board, appointed by Acting Secretary Roosevelt for the purpose of preparing, for the information of congress, estimates of the cost of establishing and operating a government plant for the manufacture of armor, has held a meeting at the navy department. All of the members were present, namely, Commodore Howell, Captain McCormick, Civil Engineer Endicott, Chief Engineer Perry, Lieutenant Fletcher and Lieutenant Chambers, recorder.

Before proceeding with the work of organization the members of the board called upon Acting Secretary Roosevelt and had a long talk with him respecting the undertaking before them. The acting secretary expressed his views as to the intention of congress, and the board was ready for work after a room had been secured. The plan is to make a most thorough investigation of the question presented in all of its aspects, not only with a view to the ascertainment of the cost of building a great government factory, but after this has been accomplished propositions will be invited for the sale of a complete plant to the government. While this last information was not specifically directed to be furnished to congress in the law, it is deemed desirable to supply it in order to permit of a consideration of the economic advantages of each plan.

In the pursuit of the first branch of the subject it will be necessary for the board to travel a good deal, possibly to Europe, before the inquiry is ended, though that has not yet been determined upon. Certainly it will be necessary for it to visit many points in this country where it has been suggested that a government plant may be advantageously established, in order to ascertain at first hand the relative merits of such places and to learn which of them presents the necessary conditions. These as laid down for the guidance of the board are first, accessibility to iron and coal and routes of transportation, so that the heavy armor produced may be readily laid down at tidewater where naval vessels are built.

Next, weight must be given to the character of the population of the place from an industrial point of view and its ability to furnish a large stock of skilled mechanics for the government to draw upon in manning its plant. So far there has been no lack of suggestions to the navy department from people who would like to locate the plant. They have come, according to Acting Secretary Roosevelt, from Marion, Ind., from Birmingham, Ala., from Pennsylvania, from Maryland, and, indeed, from almost every part of the country where there is iron and coal.

Inasmuch as the shipbuilders have failed to respond favorably to the government's invitation to submit bids within the $300 mark for supplying armor for the ships now building, Mr. Roosevelt called the special attention of the board to this subject, and one of its first duties will be to devise some practicable plan for the procurement of this armor for the three battleships, Illinois, Alabama and Wisconsin, within a reasonable period of time.

Acting Secretary Roosevelt has accepted the offer of the Cramps to furnish the diagonal armor for the Alabama, and this insures that vessel against delay in construction.

The American Flag Leads.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Consul General Hayward, in a report to the state department, states that during 1896 American vessels numbering 347, of 243,983 tons, entered at Hawaiian ports, while vessels of all other nationalities numbered 139, of 234,014 tons. These are the only foreign ports where a majority of the carrying trade is now under the American flag.

Marietta to Go In Commission.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—The navy department has given orders to have the new gunboat Marietta, now at San Francisco, put into commission on the 1st of September.

LUNCHEON WITH WOODBURY.

The President Paid Another Visit to Burlington, Vt.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Aug. 10.—President McKinley has visited Burlington for the second time within a week. This time he was the guest of ex-Governor Urban A. Woodbury, who crossed the lake to Bluff Point on the steam yacht Washita.

The president and party returned to Burlington with Governor Woodbury on the Washita. From the Lake Champlain club's private wharf the party were escorted to their carriages. The guests were: President McKinley, Vice President Hobart, Secretary of War Alger, Hon. Whitelaw Reid and Secretary Porter.

The visitors were driven through the main thoroughfare of the city to Governor Woodbury's elegant residence, where an elaborate luncheon was served.

Colonel Putnam entertained the ladies of the presidential party with a luncheon on board his yacht.

The party later returned to the hotel.

SHERMAN'S "SALOON STYLE."

An English Paper's Insult to Our Premier—Mental Decay Also Charged.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—Commenting on the interview of the New York World with Secretary Sherman, the St. James Gazette says:

"Secretary Sherman's utterances afford no material for denial by his friends of the statement that he is suffering from senile decay."

In conclusion, the St. James Gazette repeats its recent warning that "this is a dangerous line of policy to follow and that some day Great Britain may call upon Washington to back up its bluff." The Westminster Gazette, referring to the same matter, remarks: "The interview is a fruitless example of Sherman's saloon style."

The Globe on this subject says: "Secretary Sherman had better rid himself of the idea that Uncle Sam is going to boss the show, either on the gold fields or in the fisheries. We are not ready to follow every quarrel with blows; but when we strike we strike hard, and the idea of our being afraid of a third rate power like the United States could only have occurred to a lunatic or to Mr. Sherman. Judging from his latest performances we may assume that the rumors that Mr. Sherman is suffering from mental disturbances are correct."

The utterances attributed to Secretary Sherman, upon which the comments of the London papers are based, were as follows:

"England is a great country, but it is not always safe to assume that she is ready to follow up every quarrel with blows. She quarrels oftener than she fights. It would be exceedingly difficult for her to fight us all alone about our seal catching. Russia and Japan are in a similar position, and any quarrel between the United States and England on this score would, in all probability, involve those other two countries."

TORTURED WITH FIREBRANDS.

Burglars' Brutal Attempt to Rob Two Bachelor Brothers.

ALTOONA, Pa., Aug. 10.—Four burglars entered the house of Philip and John Dever, bachelor brothers, in Munster township, Cambria county, and tortured the old men with firebrands in the hope of getting money. A nephew, James W. Dever of Altoona, who was visiting his uncles at the time, had his jaw shattered by a blow from a revolver in the hands of one of the villains. The burglars had to depart without getting any money.

The Devers sold coal rights for $1,600, but the money is not due till October. It was this sum that the burglars were probably after. James Dever is now in the Altoona hospital. The old men are painfully but not seriously injured.

A JUST CRIME.

Governor Atkinson Approves a Shooting and Remits the Fine.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Aug. 10.—About a year ago a man named W. S. Kimes shot and seriously injured Ben Hall, the turnkey of the jail here, because, as alleged, Hall alienated the affections of Kimes' wife.

Judge Jackson gave him 24 hours in jail, a fine of $100 and costs and concurred in a petition signed by a number of prominent citizens pleading for a remission of fine.

Governor Atkinson says he will remit the fine, and that the only regret in the matter is that Hall was not killed and that Kimes did right.

INVASION INTO PERSIA.

Armenian Agitators Said to Have Slaughtered 300 Persons.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 10.—An official dispatch received here says that several thousand Armenian agitators from Persia have invaded Turkey.

They killed 200 of the Migriki tribe, including women and children. The wife of the chief was put to death with the most cruel tortures, and several other victims had their noses and ears cut off. The authorities have taken measures to capture the marauders and to provide for eventualities in the Vilayat of Van.

A Negro Murderer Lynched.

VICKSBURG, Miss., Aug. 10.—John Cordon, alias Lewis Kelson, the negro who murdered William Allen at Brunswick on July 15 by clubbing him with a gun barrel and who was captured in Louisiana yesterday, has been hanged by lynchers.

Mortally Wounded by an Officer.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 10.—Ex-Secretary of State W. A. Strong, who is now serving in Onachita parish as a deputy sheriff, has shot and mortally wounded A. B. Cook on the streets of Monroe. Cook was wanted in Grant parish for burglary.

British Victory In Soudan.

CAIRO, Aug. 10.—The column of troops commanded by Colonel Hunter of the Anglo-Egyptian expedition up the Nile, which left Merani on July 29, attacked Abu Namid at 5:30 o'clock on the morning of Aug. 7 and captured the place.

CUBANS ARE HUMANE.

Not Rejoicing Over Canovas' Assassination.

CONDEMN THE COWARDLY DEED.

Palma Says the Dead Man Was Back of Weyler's Terrible Butcheries—Fajalveja, Another Butcher, May Succeed the Present Captain General in Cuba.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—At the headquarters of the Cuban junta, Delegate T. Estrada Palma talked briefly about the assassination of Spanish Prime Minister Canovas. He said that in his opinion Canovas was more responsible for the outrages in Cuba than was Weyler, and his killing seemed to be an act of retribution. At the same time the Cuban party had nothing whatever to do with the death of Canovas, and had no knowledge that such an act was even contemplated by anarchists or any one else.

Silvala, who was second to Canovas in power, although a member of the Conservative party, has expressed the opinion that if he had the power and was in possession of the absolute knowledge that the Cuban difficulty was the cause of the general uprising of the Cubans, and not of any clique, he would advise the Spanish to evacuate the islands.

Dr. Palma said that from every view the confusion caused by the death of Canovas could not but help the Cuban cause. The Cubans had no expression of sympathy to make for the act of the assassin, but at the same time Cubans could not but feel that they would benefit by it.

Canovas had been threatened by the anarchists of Spain and of France, who are closely allied. Dr. Palma expressed the opinion that if Silvala should be selected to succeed Canovas, General Palavieja would succeed Weyler. General Palavieja has recently returned to Spain from the Philippine islands. The Cubans would not receive any more humane treatment at the hands of General Palavieja, as he is a believer, Dr. Palma says, in the Weyler methods of outrage and assassination.

The Cuban army had fought in a manner which had commanded the respect of all nations, while Weyler and his men had brutally murdered and committed outrages which called for the condemnation of all civilized people. In conclusion, President Palma said that the Cubans would not accept less than absolute independence.

The rooms of the Cuban junta were crowded with the members of the party, all of whom expressed themselves in condemnation of the act of murder committed by the Italian anarchist.

AVENGED DEAD ANARCHISTS.

Golli Tells Why He Killed the Spanish Premier.

MADRID, Aug. 10.—Anarchist Golli has confessed that he killed Senor Canovas to avenge the Barcelona anarchists and the insurgent, Don Jose Rizal, who was executed at Manila, Philippine islands, on December 1st. The instigator of the Philippine rebellion, Dr. Rizal, denied that he was a rebel leader, but he admitted that he had drawn up the statutes of the Philippine League.

In Golli's room the police found a large double-barreled pistol. It appears that when he left the house he carried a parcel, which is believed to have contained a bomb. The theory is that he hid this somewhere in the fields.

A dispatch from Barcelona says that Golli arrived there in December, 1895, coming from Marseilles. He was employed in the printing office of The Review Social Science, managed by the anarchist engineer, Tarrida Marmel, formerly imprisoned in Montjuich fortress at Barcelona.

Golli was implicated in the terrible crime of the celebration of Corpus Christi, although he left Barcelona a few days before it occurred. He was denounced to the police for complicity, but he had already disappeared.

SYMPATHY FOR SPAIN.

Text of the Message Cabled by Secretary Sherman to Madrid.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Official notice of the killing of the Spanish premier reached the state department in the following cablegram:

"SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.

"SHERMAN, "Care W. H. Michael, chief clerk, "Canovas assassinated by anarchist. Have expressed profound sympathy. [Signed] "TAYLOR."

The secretary of state immediately caused to be drafted the following message of condolence, which was forwarded to Minister Taylor, after having been submitted by telegram to President McKinley:

"TAYLOR, "American Minister, "San Sebastian, Spain.

"Your action approved. Renew in name of the president his expression of deep sorrow and sympathy for the loss borne by Spain in the death of Senor Canovas del Castillo, the prime minister of Spain, one of the most eminent of the statesmen of our time, and convey condolence to family of deceased. [Signed] "SHERMAN."

Acting Secretary Roosevelt has accepted the offer of the Cramps to furnish the diagonal armor for the Alabama, and this insures that vessel against delay in construction.

The American Flag Leads.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Consul General Hayward, in a report to the state department, states that during 1896 American vessels numbering 347, of 243,983 tons, entered at Hawaiian ports, while vessels of all other nationalities numbered 139, of 234,014 tons. These are the only foreign ports where a majority of the carrying trade is now under the American flag.

Marietta to Go in Commission.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—The navy department has given orders to have the new gunboat Marietta, now at San Francisco, put into commission on the 1st of September.

LUNCED WITH WOODBURY.

The President Paid Another Visit to Burlington, Vt.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Aug. 10.—President McKinley has visited Burlington for the second time within a week. This time he was the guest of ex-Governor Urban A. Woodbury, who crossed the lake to Bluff Point on the steam yacht Washita.

The president and party returned to Burlington with Governor Woodbury on the Washita. From the Lake Champlain club's private wharf the party were escorted to their carriages. The guests were: President McKinley, Vice President Hobart, Secretary of War Alger, Hon. Whitelaw Reid and Secretary Porter.

The visitors were driven through the main thoroughfare of the city to Governor Woodbury's elegant residence, where an elaborate luncheon was served.

Colonel Putnam entertained the ladies of the presidential party with a luncheon on board his yacht.

The party later returned to the hotel.

SHERMAN'S "SALOON STYLE."

An English Paper's Insult to Our Premier—Mental Decay Also Charged.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—Commenting on the interview of the New York World with Secretary Sherman, the St. James Gazette says:

"Secretary Sherman's utterances afford no material for denial by his friends of the statement that he is suffering from senile decay."

In conclusion, the St. James Gazette repeats its recent warning that "this is a dangerous line of policy to follow and that some day Great Britain may call upon Washington to back up its bluff."

The Westminster Gazette, referring to the same matter, remarks: "The interview is a fruitless example of Sherman's saloon style."

The Globe on this subject says: "Secretary Sherman had better rid himself of the idea that Uncle Sam is going to boss the show, either on the gold fields or in the fisheries. We are not ready to follow every quarrel with blows; but when we strike we strike hard, and the idea of our being afraid of a third rate power like the United States could only have occurred to a lunatic or to Mr. Sherman. Judging from his latest performances we may assume that the rumors that Mr. Sherman is suffering from mental disturbances are correct."

The utterances attributed to Secretary Sherman, upon which the comments of the London papers are based, were as follows:

"England is a great country, but it is not always safe to assume that she is ready to follow up every quarrel with blows. She quarrels oftener than she fights. It would be exceedingly difficult for her to fight us: all alone about our seal catching. Russia and Japan are in a similar position, and any quarrel between the United States and England on this score would, in all probability, involve those other two countries."

TORTURED WITH FIREBRANDS

Burglars' Brutal Attempt to Rob Two Bachelor Brothers.

ALTOONA, Pa., Aug. 10.—Four burglars entered the house of Philip and John Dever, bachelor brothers, in Munster township, Cambria county, and tortured the old men with firebrands in the hope of getting money. A nephew, James W. Dever of Altoona, who was visiting his uncles at the time, had his jaw shattered by a blow from a revolver in the hands of one of the villains. The burglars had to depart without getting any money.

The Devers sold coal rights for $1,600, but the money is not due till October. It was this sum that the burglars were probably after. James Dever is now in the Altoona hospital. The old men are painfully but not seriously injured.

A JUST CRIME.

Governor Atkinson Approves a Shooting and Remits the Fine.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Aug. 10.—About a year ago a man named W. S. Kimes shot and seriously injured Ben Hall, the turnkey of the jail here, because, as alleged, Hall alienated the affections of Kimes' wife.

Judge Jackson gave him 24 hours in jail, a fine of $100 and costs and concurred in a petition signed by a number of prominent citizens pleading for a remission of fine.

Governor Atkinson says he will remit the fine, and that the only regret in the matter is that Hall was not killed and that Kimes did right.

INVASION INTO PERSIA

Armenian Agitators Said to Have Slaughtered 200 Persons.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 10.—An official dispatch received here says that several thousand Armenian agitators from Persia have invaded Turkey.

They killed 200 of the Migriki tribe, including women and children. The wife of the chief was put to death with the most cruel tortures, and several other victims had their noses and ears cut off. The authorities have taken measures to capture the marauders and to provide for eventualities in the Vilayat of Van.

A Negro Murderer Lynched.

VICKSBURG, Miss., Aug. 10.—John Cordon, alias Lewis Kelson, the negro who murdered William Allen at Brunswick on July 15 by clubbing him with a gun barrel and who was captured in Louisiana yesterday, has been hanged by lynchers.

Mortally Wounded by an Officer.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 10.—Ex-Secretary of State W. A. Strong, who is now serving in Ouachita parish as a deputy sheriff, has shot and mortally wounded A. B. Cook on the streets of Monroe. Cook was wanted in Grant parish for burglary.

British Victory in Sudan.

CAIRO, Aug. 10.—The column of troops commanded by Colonel Hunter of the Anglo-Egyptian expedition up the Nile, which left Merani on July 29, attacked Abu Namid at 5:30 o'clock on the morning of Aug. 7 and captured the place.

CUBANS ARE HUMANE.

Not Rejoicing Over Canovas' Assassination.

CONDEMN THE COWARDLY DEED.

Palma Says the Dead Man Was Back of Weyler's Terrible Butcheries—Palavieja, Another Butcher, May Succeed the Present Captain General in Cuba.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—At the headquarters of the Cuban junta, Delegate T. Estrada Palma talked briefly about the assassination of Spanish Prime Minister Canovas. He said that in his opinion Canovas was more responsible for the outrages in Cuba than was Weyler, and his killing seemed to be an act of retribution. At the same time the Cuban party had nothing whatever to do with the death of Canovas, and had no knowledge that such an act was even contemplated by anarchists or any one else.

Silvala, who was second to Canovas in power, although a member of the Conservative party, has expressed the opinion that if he had the power and was in possession of the absolute knowledge that the Cuban difficulty was the cause of the general uprising of the Cubans, and not of any clique, he would advise the Spanish to evacuate the islands.

Dr. Palma said that from every view the confusion caused by the death of Canovas could not but help the Cuban cause. The Cubans had no expression of sympathy to make for the act of the assassin, but at the same time Cubans could not but feel that they would benefit by it.

Canovas had been threatened by the anarchists of Spain and of France, who are closely allied. Dr. Palma expressed the opinion that if Silvala should be selected to succeed Canovas, General Palavieja would succeed Weyler. General Palavieja has recently returned to Spain from the Philippine islands. The Cubans would not receive any more humane treatment at the hands of General Palavieja, as he is a believer, Dr. Palma says, in the Weyler methods of outrage and assassination.

The Cuban army had fought in a manner which had commanded the respect of all nations, while Weyler and his men had brutally murdered and committed outrages which called for the condemnation of all civilized people.

In conclusion, President Palma said that the Cubans would not accept less than absolute independence.

The rooms of the Cuban junta were crowded with the members of the party, all of whom expressed themselves in condemnation of the act of murder committed by the Italian anarchist.

AVENGED DEAD ANARCHISTS.

Golli Tells Why He Killed the Spanish Premier.

MADRID, Aug. 10.—Anarchist Golli has confessed that he killed Senor Canovas to avenge the Barcelona anarchists and the insurgent, Don Jose Rizal, who was executed at Manila, Philippine islands, on December last. The instigator of the Philippine rebellion, Dr. Rizal, denied that he was a rebel leader, but he admitted that he had drawn up the statutes of the Philippine League.

In Golli's room the police found a large double-barreled pistol. It appears that when he left the house he carried a parcel, which is believed to have contained a bomb. The theory is that he hid this somewhere in the fields.

A dispatch from Barcelona says that Golli arrived there in December, 1895, coming from Marseilles. He was employed in the printing office of The Review Social Science, managed by the anarchist engineer, Tarrida Marmel, formerly imprisoned in Montjuich fortress at Barcelona.

Golli was implicated in the terrible crime of the celebration of Corpus Christi, although he left Barcelona a few days before it occurred. He was denounced to the police for complicity, but he had already disappeared.

SYMPATHY FOR SPAIN.

Text of the Message Cabled by Secretary Sherman to Madrid.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Official notice of the killing of the Spanish premier reached the state department in the following cablegram:

"SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.

"SHERMAN, 'Care W. H. Michael, chief clerk. 'Canovas assassinated by anarchist. Have expressed profound sympathy. [Signed] 'TAYLOR.'"

The secretary of state immediately caused to be drafted the following message of condolence, which was forwarded to Minister Taylor, after having been submitted by telegraph to President McKinley:

"TAYLOR, 'American Minister, 'San Sebastian, Spain.

"Your action approved. Renew in name of the president his expression of deep sorrow and sympathy for the loss borne by Spain in the death of Senor Canovas del Castillo, the prime minister of Spain, one of the most eminent of the statesmen of our time, and convey condolence to family of deceased. [Signed] 'SHERMAN.'"

PAID A FEW BILLS

Claims Committee Also Held a Few.

REVEREND M'LAUGHLIN AGAIN

He With Several Others Must Wait For Their Money—It Was a Short Session In Which the Members Transacted Business In a Hurry.

The meeting of claims committee last night was one of the shortest on record.

George Wucherer was present, and explained the bill of Sophia Wucherer for $146 for damages to her property by the heavy rains of last year. It was thought best to lay the bill over. Accounts of J. B. McLaughlin for $16.60, Sheriff Gill for $35.05, and Knowles, Taylor & Anderson for $4.50 met the same fate.

The following bills were ordered paid: Winfield Allen, $1.65; J. A. George, $180.55; Harry Reddick, $1.50; Standard livery, $4.50; S. T. Herbert, $50; Isaac Shamp, $6.90; T. E. Nagle, $3.78; Robert Hall, $6.98; Union Planing mill, $30.77; Wilson Stationery company, $1.40; George Grosshans, $50; Kinsey Plumbing company, $4.15 A. J. Boyce, $2.50; Eagle Hardware company, $5.43; Harry Yates, $24; A. J. Johnson, work of prisoners on streets, $16.13; light company, $566.67; H. E. Walter, $7; Crisis, $3.04; board of health, $75; Tribune, $17.35; NEWS REVIEW, $3.04; Salary of fire department and expenses, $488.13; salary of street commissioner and pay roll, $222.25; Aaron McDonald, $15; A. J. Johnson, salary, $55; feeding prisoners, $25.25; washing bedclothes, new towels and sundries, $3.60; salary of police force, $146.

THE NEW DAMS.

Captain Dravo Proposes to Have Work Rushed.

Captain John F. Dravo, whose labors were largely instrumental in bringing about the purchase of the Monongahela dams, has now turned his attention to the new Ohio river locks and dams. Senator M. S. Quay is now at his home in Beaver, and Captain Dravo intends to pay him an early visit. He will ask the senator's help in securing immediate action in the matter. Congress appropriated $3,000,000 for the work, but nothing has been done as yet. At least three years will be required to complete the task, and rivermen are anxious to see it begin. With a complete slack-water system between Davis Island and Beaver dams the Ohio would be navigable all the year around.

IN GOOD CONDITION.

The Young Men's Christian Association Has No Cause to Complain.

The board of directors of the Young Men's Christian association were to hold a meeting last night, but were unable to secure a quorum. Those present held an informal meeting and discussed the financial condition of the Association. Several reports were read, and it was found the finances were in a better condition than they have been for several years. One of the board stated this morning that if the work of the Association is kept at its present standard the membership will soon be near the 500 mark. The leaders in the Association have had a hard row to hoe, but they have not labored in vain, as their work is proving.

Acetylene Gas.

We are now prepared to place on the market our machines for generating acetylene gas. These machines are adapted for lighting stores, factories, churches and private residences. Small towns and farmers can now have gas as well as those in the cities, as each consumer controls his own little gas plant, which is quite inexpensive. We guarantee to furnish six times as much light at less than half the expense of ordinary gas, electric light or kerosene lamps. A first-class agent is wanted in every county to sell our machines.

$2 Excursion to Cleveland.

Saturday, Aug. 14, $2 round trip tickets to Cleveland will be sold for all regular trains via Pennsylvania lines from East Liverpool good returning until Monday, Aug. 16 inclusive. Every opportunity offered for a pleasant excursion. Steamer rides on Lake Erie to Put-In-Bay, Lakeside, Detroit, etc., may be taken advantage of at a slight additional cost within return limit of Pennsylvania lines excursion tickets.

Tandems and bicycles for rent at W. O. Hamilton's.

DANGER OF SOCIABILITY.

Speaker Reed Compelled to Suppress His Smiles.

There is little encouragement for a man prominent in public life to relax his dignity and become sociable, says a writer in the Washington Star. Speaker Reed has been growing constantly less sociable as he has grown more powerful in public affairs. He is naturally friendly, but if he yields to a disposition to be sociable some one at once takes advantage of it. The other day two or three members of the house were standing in the lobby before the house met, and the speaker, coming along, stopped to join in the conversation. He had a smile of easy going indolence on his face and appeared to be in a most amiable and jocular mood. The conversation started out with a little bantering on both sides, and in a minute the speaker's face was beaming with good nature. Meanwhile an old woman who is something of an habitue of the capitol, was standing at a distance watching him. As his smile broadened and his good nature became more apparent she edged inch by inch closer to him, a fawning smile developing on her face, as if in reflection of his mood. His back was half turned toward her, and he did not see her approach. Just as he had burst forth in a characteristic, hearty laugh the old woman made a final slide and touched his elbow.

"Good morning, Mr. Speaker," she said.

The speaker's laugh was cut in two across the middle. With a courteous bow and an expression of dignified kindness on his face he accepted her extended hand and said, "Good morning, madam." With a deprecatory smile she sidled closer to him.

"I have a small claim," she said, "which I am very anxious to get through. I hope you are going to appoint your committees soon, so that it can be reported. You know about it."

"Oh, yes; I know about it," replied the speaker, a look of weariness and pain spreading over his face. "There is no danger of my forgetting it."

Back of the old woman were several other petitioners creeping up to ambush the speaker's good humor. With an expression of painful resignation to fate he turned and walked away. He did not stop to join any other of the chatting groups of statesmen, and the smile did not come back on his face for a long while.

"They won't let him be amiable," said one of the representatives. "If he smiles, some one must take advantage of it."

THE SIBERIAN RAILWAY.

From Peking to London In Less Than Half the Time It Now Takes.

The directors of the Great Siberian railway are already figuring on a time table from London to Peking, which will go into effect in July, 1901. The journey will occupy less than 15 days, as follows: Train, four hours from London to Ostend; to Warsaw, distance 1,562 kilometers, in 19 hours, a rate of 80 kilometers an hour; Warsaw to Batraki, 2,219 kilometers, is to be accomplished in 34½ hours, 64 kilometers an hour. Russian trains are much slower than the west European systems. From Batraki to Tcheliabinsk, where the new Siberian line actually commences, 1,127 kilometers, 21 hours, at a further reduced speed, 53 kilometers an hour. From Tcheliabinsk to Vladivostok, distance 9,283 kilometers, at a mean speed of 42 kilometers, will take 221 hours. Thus, the entire journey of 14,191 kilometers will occupy 296 hours, or 12½ days, as against the present time of 38 days by the Suez canal and 28 days via the Canadian Pacific. If the 80 kilometer speed on the Ostend-Warsaw section could be maintained throughout, the journey would be accomplished in 7½ days. Making every allowance for difficulties in the way of high speed across the Siberian steppes, there is a large margin for improvement from Tcheliabinsk to Vladivostok.

Was Dumas Influenced by Ibsen?

A Norwegian newspaper reports an interview with Ibsen by Jules Claretie, in which both are said to have made some curious remarks. M. Claretie is said to have declared that Alexandre Dumas left a play showing markedly the influence of Ibsen, at which he worked for ten years, aiming to reconcile his own dramatic method with Ibsen's; that the work is a masterpiece, but the last scenes are unfortunately lacking, and that nevertheless he, Claretie, hoped to produce it at the Theatre Francaise, if the Dumas heirs would permit it. He added, according to the Norwegian reporter, that he hoped to bring out some of the plays of Ibsen at the great French playhouse, whereupon the Norwegian dramatist made the unexpected reply that it was scarcely pleasant for him to see his plays produced, because they were generally represented in a form different from that in which he had conceived them. Finally Mr. Claretie extended an invitation to Ibsen to visit Paris, assuring him that he would be received with great distinction.—New York Tribune.

Prince Damrong, the Siamese minister of the interior, who accompanies King Chulalongkorn on his European tour, is described as being taciturn and distant in his manners, while Prince Devawongse, the prime minister, is very talkative and affable.

MERRITT'S MIRACLES

HE CLAIMS TO HEAL THE SICK AND RESTORE THE DEMENTED.

States That He Talked Daily With the Holy Ghost at Old Orchard, Me.—A Voice From Heaven Called Him Back to New York.

The Rev. Stephen Merritt's proclamation at the Christian Alliance camp meeting at Old Orchard, Me., the other day that in him had been vested by the Holy Ghost the power to work miraculous cures caused a decided sensation among his acquaintances, and many of them called on him at 241 West Twenty-third street, New York city. All were anxious to hear from his own lips his claims as to the extent of his powers to heal those ill and restore reason to the demented.

"A voice from heaven called me back to New York," he said to them. "There was work to be done. I did not know just what the nature of the work was. Later it was revealed to me. I was to address the multitudes."

Mr. Merritt called a meeting in the chapel over his business place the same evening. A few were drawn out of curiosity, but most of the small company that listened to him had faith in his recently announced acquisition of divine powers.

"Yes," he said, "I did not question the voice that called me back here. Now I know why I was to come. The people here had read of my sermon at Old Orchard, and they were anxious for further revelations. I have talked to those today who will spread broadcast the news of the salvation I have proclaimed."

"For some time I have felt that I was in daily communication with the Holy Ghost and that I was being prepared to do his work. I felt that I was to be made his instrument, to work good to the body as well as the soul. I did not seek this power, but it was given me, perhaps because of my great faith. Now that I possess it I must not allow myself to shrink from my duty. My duty is to exercise it."

"I have already worked many physical cures. One elderly woman that I caused to arise from what her friends supposed was her deathbed is so well that today she goes to Rhode Island to visit her friends."

"I could give you the names of those I have healed, but because of their desire to avoid notoriety I deem it best to withhold them."

"I prayed over a young man in an insane asylum at San Bernardino, Cal., and his reason has been restored. That was only a few weeks ago. Since I have returned from California I have heard that he is in good mental and physical condition."

"I was called to the bedside of a young woman who was in the last stages of consumption. The doctors said she could not live through the night. I told her if I anointed her she would live. They brought oil. I applied it, and today she is in perfect health. She worked for me for a few weeks after her recovery. She is now in Cleveland."

"I was sued recently for $1,000 by a man who said I lost his trunk. My lawyers told me to be back here today to sign some papers in the case. That was not the real reason I came, though. There was so much good work going on at Old Orchard that I would not have left there had not the Holy Ghost told me to leave. That voice said:

"Hurry right to the train. Lose no time. Back to New York." I came back and signed the affidavits, but it was after that had been done that the voice within me told me of the real mission."

The room in which Mr. Merritt held his meeting was darkened while the audience was assembling. The men and women filed solemnly in and maintained a strict silence in the somber room. This phantasmalike congregation was seated on camp stools which were scattered about the large chapel.

When Mr. Merritt arrived, the electric lights were turned on. He dwelt at length on the edified state of sanctification attained by Delia Rees. According to his statements, Miss Rees was almost gifted with the same ability to enter into communion with the Holy Ghost that he says he possesses.

Speaking of his new "power," Mr. Merritt said:

"I had always thought my life a sort of failure, but now I have received a new kind of power. I did not seek it. It just came to me. One time the Methodists thought there was no body like Stephen Merritt. Now I guess they don't think so much of him. The only ties that I hold are those that come through close fellowship with the Holy Ghost."

Mr. Merritt suddenly and unexpectedly broke off his remarks with: "Now I've got to get home. I must get started by 9 o'clock." And catching up his hat he hurried through the audience and bolted out of the door.—New York Herald.

Coating For Warships' Bottoms.

George H. Eldredge of Denver left recently for the gilsonite lands of Utah to make an investigation for the navy department. Experiments with a substance from the Utah mineral lands lead the department to believe that if the bottom of a ship is coated with it it will withstand the attacks of submarine animals which bore into the steel and which cost the nations of the world millions of dollars. Not only this, but it will be impossible for fungi to gather on the bottoms of the ships, fouling them, and will render docking unnecessary except in case of an accident. Eldredge has been sent to the Ute Indian reservation to make an investigation as to the extent of the deposits, and if the quality of the material is what experts have claimed for it the ships of the American navy will be coated with a substance that will permit them to hold the seas for an indefinite time.—New York Tribune.

Good Milk.

To make good butter one must have good milk, and this comes only from healthy cows, fed on good, sweet pasture or on good, sweet grain and other forage, and which have pure water to drink and pure air to breathe. Certain obnoxious weeds—leeks, wild onions, ragweed and others—give the milk and the butter made from it a decidedly bad flavor; so also do damaged, rotten silage, moldy corn fodder or hay and musty, damaged grain. Impure water has its effect both on the health of the animals and the quality of the milk. In many pastures are seen small pools in which the cows stand during the heat of the day to rid themselves of flies. The water in these becomes filthy and is kept stirred up by the movements of the cattle, and where, as is often the case, it is the only water obtainable the cows are compelled to drink it. This can usually be avoided by fencing the pond and keeping the cattle out. If this water is needed for the cattle it can be drawn out by a pipe laid on the lower side in a trough from which the cows can drink.

In a close, crowded and ill ventilated stable, where there is too little air space for each animal, the air becomes foul from the exhalations, and this affects the milk as well as the health of the animals. The remedy in this case is to provide more room for the stock and better ventilation.

The stable should be kept as clean as possible and the cows well bedded and clean. The utmost cleanliness should be observed in milking. All dirt should be brushed from the cow before beginning to milk, and it is best to dampen the udder and flank of the cow, so as to prevent the dust and fine dirt from falling into the milk. The milk should be strained immediately after milking and not allowed to stand in the cow stable any longer than is absolutely necessary.—Bulletin United States Department of Agriculture.

Loud Talkers and Low Speakers.

"Funny writers and stage comedians make the mistake of representing country people as very loud talkers," remarked Colonel Leonard Ainsworth of Arkansas. "As a matter of fact, persons who are accustomed to the quiet and solitude of rural life speak in a very low tone of voice, while those who live in the constant din and nerve racking noises of the city naturally acquire the habit of talking loudly. The reason for the difference is plain. When you city folks meet on the street, you have to elevate your voices to a high pitch in order to make yourselves heard. I never come to St. Louis or visit any other large city that I don't soon get a sore throat from overexerting my voice. Of course, you who live here are used to the strain on your voice and don't suffer from it as I do."

"If you ever heard an Indian talk, you will realize the force of what I say. I never saw a real Indian that spoke much above a whisper. He illustrates exactly what I mean. The Indian lives in quiet and solitude. His atmosphere is not filled with noises and tympanum piercing sounds. Consequently he does not have to elevate his voice in carrying on conversation. Your city arab, the counterpart of the Indian, talks loud enough when he comes to Arkansas to be heard in the next county."—St. Louis Republic.

Civilization in France, A. D. 1617.

Marshal d'Ancre was assassinated in the streets of Vitry April 24, 1617. The people of France have always been looked upon as fairly well civilized at that time. Yet this is what these civilized Frenchmen did. They dug up the corpse of D'Ancre, dragged it through the streets to the Pont Neuf, where they hung it up by the feet. Then it was dragged through the streets again to the Place de Greve. D'Ancre, or what was left of him, was dismembered and chopped to pieces, the crowds fighting for morsels of the "excommunicated Jew," as they called him. His entrails were thrown into the river, his ears were sold to the best bidder, and what was left was burned in front of the statue of Henri IV. Most horrible of all, his heart was torn out, cooked and eaten by these human wolves. The next day the dead marshal's ashes were offered for sale on the streets, while his wife was accused of sorcery, dragged to the bastille and her head hacked off.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Shirt Signs.

"In Brooklyn the other day," said a resident of Manhattan borough, "I saw in the window of a furnishing goods store this sign: 'Shirt Constructor.' There is a furnishing goods store in New York that displays, among other signs, one marked 'Shirter.' There used to be another furnishing goods store in this city with a sign reading, as I remember it, 'Shirt Builder,' but 'Shirt Constructor' is new as far as I know."

No matter how much of a business woman a woman may be, when the little love-god makes up his mind to shoot, there is no protection against his arrow. Yet many a young woman whose affections are already engaged, hesitates to assume the obligations of wifehood and motherhood, because she feels unfitted for them by some physical weakness or disease.

The special ailments to which the feminine organism is liable, not only unfit a woman for happy wifehood and motherhood, but incapacitate her for any sphere of action. No woman can discharge the daily duties of any position with comfort or satisfaction who is constantly weighed down by headaches, backaches and dragging, weakening drains.

Troubles of this nature are not by any means a necessity of womanhood. They are positively and completely cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It imparts genuine health and strength to the womanly organs. It was devised for this one purpose by an eminent specialist in this particular field of practice.

"For several years I suffered with prolapsus of the uterus," writes Miss A. Lee Schuster, of Box 12, Rodney, Jefferson Co., Miss. "Our family physician treated me for kidney trouble, and everything else but the right thing. I grew weak and worse. My body was emaciated, hands and feet clammy and cold, stomach weak, with great palpitation of the heart. I dreaded for night to come for I would suffer with nausea all night and so I continued until some kind unknown friend sent me your book with a marked page. I began taking your 'Favorite Prescription,' contrary to my family's wishes, and I began to improve right away. I have taken three bottles and now I am very nearly well and am very happy, and thankful to you."

JUDGE FOR YOURSELF

Which is Better, Try an Experiment or Profit by an East Liverpool Citizen's Experience.

Something new is an experiment. Must be proven to be as represented. Be successful at home or you doubt it. The statement of a manufacturer is not convincing proof of merit. But the indorsement of friends is. Now, supposing you had a bad back, A Lame, Weak or Aching one. Would you experiment on it? You will read of many so-called cures, But they come from far away places. It's different when the indorsement comes from home.

Easy to prove that it is so. Home indorsement is the proof that backs every box of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Read this case: Mr. Samuel Mayer, No. 183 Bank St., who is an employee of the M. Nicholls Pottery, says: "My health was fairly good until two years ago, when my kidneys commenced to trouble me, causing my back to ache a good part of the time and to get sore and lame across the kidneys. The pain was often sharp and penetrating, especially when stooping or lifting, and it was impossible to get rid of the trouble until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. I got a box of them at the W. & W. Pharmacy, and tried them. They gave me ease after taking a few doses. When I had taken one box the soreness and pains in the back and other symptoms of kidney disease passed away, and I have not been troubled since. My experience with Doan's Kidney Pills convinces me they do all that they claim, and I can indorse them as such. I know of others using them, and they can speak as highly of them as I can."

Doan's Kidney Pills are sold for 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by all dealers, or sent by mail on receipt of price. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

SALOONISTS MUST OBEY

Mayor Jones Has Decided to Punish Them

WHEN THEY BREAK THE LAW

Activity Around the Shops—A New Telegraph Office—A Pleasant Evening—A Football Story—All the News of Wellsville.

During the trial of John Patterson yesterday Mayor Jones said that every Sunday a large number of reports were brought him about saloons being open on Sunday. He said that by the lack of day police and sufficient evidence he was compelled to let the thing go on. A crusade will now begin against the saloonkeepers who break the Sunday laws and keep open after hours, and if watchfulness will do it the violators will have to answer in court.

Railroad Notes.

The Cleveland and Pittsburg yards presented an appearance of old times this morning. Several freight trains, among which were a number of cars of coal, were being gotten ready, and the yards are full of work for the car repairers who are now working full time. A train of cars to be repaired is expected in from Erie, Pa., today.

General Manager L. F. Loree passed through here on an inspecting trip, yesterday. He went down the river at 11:20, returning here at 2:45. He returned to Cleveland last evening.

A defective hot box delayed 38, the evening train, yesterday, for 45 minutes.

A telegraph office was opened under the charge of Operator Miensinger today at the Smith's Ferry gravel pit.

Sporting Notes.

The Wellsville foot ball players are talking about an East Liverpool player, who joined the team here, attended the meetings and learned all the plans of the team. He told the home boys he intended to play with them all season, and said he wouldn't play with East Liverpool under any consideration. Now he has quit the Wellsville team.

Manager Grafton is trying to secure either New Cumberland or Toronto for a game next Saturday. If neither of these can be secured Salem will play here Saturday.

The clerks of the city want a game with the clerks of East Liverpool.

An Old Soldier Dead.

The funeral of William Hurst, who died in the Newburg asylum last Friday, was held from his late home on Coal street yesterday afternoon. Mr. Hurst was an old soldier, a member of Company K, One Hundred and Third Ohio. The members of his old company acted as pallbearers, and the surviving members of his regiment headed by the Sons of Veterans drum corps and firing squad marched to the cemetery.

A Pleasant Evening.

The Kenilworth of this city gave a dance at Rock Spring last night. The young people went up at 6:30, danced until 11 and returned home on the midnight train. Misses Laura Cooper and Nellie Cooke, of Salem, Miss Minnie Phillips, of Washington, Pa., Miss Waggoner, of Crestline, and Paul Ache, of Pittsburg, were the out of town guests.

The News of Wellsville.

Miss Lucretia Cooper and her nephew, Jay Denslow, of Indianapolis, are visiting in town.

Misses Nellie Cook and Laura Cooper, who have been visiting Wellsville friends for the past week, returned to their home in Salem today.

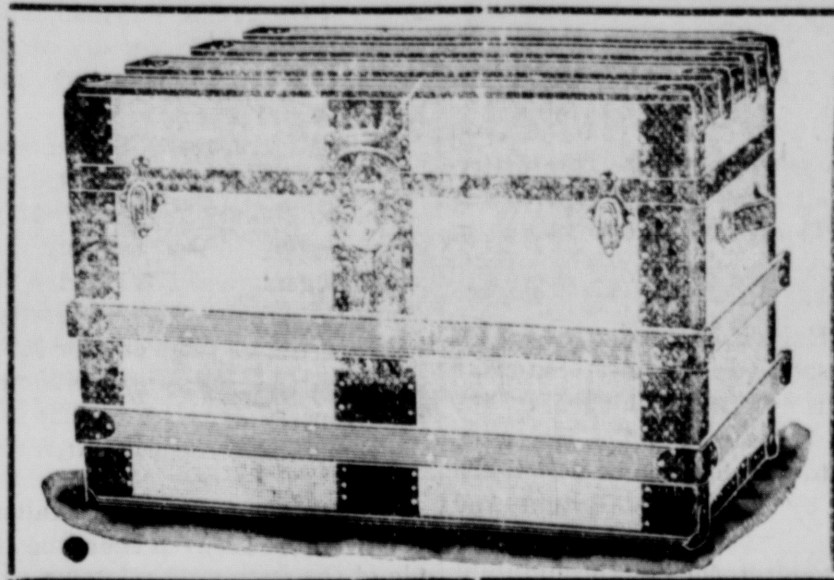

A large number of families are preparing to move to Hollow Rock next Monday. Campmeeting begins Thursday.

Mayor Jones had one case this morning. Justice MacKenzie fined one bum $4.60.

INDIAN GIRL'S ROMANCE.

When the steamer Portland arrived recently bringing the news of the rich gold discoveries in Alaska, her mails contained a letter which brought joy and renewed hope to Miss Inola Two-see, a beautiful Indian woman residing near Miami, I. T., in the Cherokee Nation.

Several years ago William Sowers was a noncommissioned officer in the regular army, stationed at Fort Gibson. Miss Two-see's father was post sutler. She fell in love with Sowers and they eloped. Soon after Sowers deserted her and fled the country. Charges of desertion from the army were preferred against him and a strong effort to locate him was made, but he could never be found. The letter in question is from Sowers and was received by Miss Two-see several days ago. In it Sowers says he has struck it rich on the Klondike and intends to return home in the spring and claim Miss Two-see as his wife.

He has been seven years in Alaska and gives a graphic description of the hardships he has encountered in his search for gold. In one place he refers to instances where the bones of prospectors lie bleaching in the sun, and he says the banks of the Yukon are strewn with the bodies of unfortunates who entered the country unprepared to face the terrible, cold weather which sets in at the beginning of September.—Exchange.

The Mississippi Floods.

There is much speculation in regard to the cause of the Mississippi floods, which are more frequent and destructive as the years roll on. Landscape gardeners who have to do with ponds, lakes and small streams have learned that the earth brought down practically narrows the conduits and outlets. There is not the room for the same volume of water as there originally was. The immense volume of earth carried to the mouth of the Mississippi annually practically raises the high water mark. Therefore, unless some method of jettying by which the waste earth can be carried farther from the mouth channel or some new additional outlet be formed, the danger must increase as the years roll on.—Meehan's Monthly.

The fortifications of Vicksburg, Atlanta and other points in the south were of earthworks, hastily constructed, though the positions chosen were generally of great natural strength.

SPIRITS VISIT HIM.

MR. BARNET'S STORY OF HIS SUPERNATURAL EXPERIENCES.

One Vision Presaged the Death of a Friend Four Months Afterward—He Says There Is No Room For Doubt, as the Apparitions Were Real.

James Barnett, a Scotch Presbyterian living in Englewood, Ill., tells a wonderful tale of marvelous spirit visitations which have appeared to him.

Of the communications which he has had with the invisible world four visions with a sign or miracles have impressed themselves indelibly upon his mind. He says that it is useless to deny their reality. He shuts off all questioning with the sweeping statement that "discussion or supposition is out of place."

Unlike some who have been fortunate enough to communicate with the spirit world, Mr. Barnett experienced no decided agitation of mind at the time of these startling and uncanny visitations.

In one instance the uninvited caller from the invisible region was thought to be a burglar. He did not have the thrill of delight nor the exalted feeling which came to St. Theresa, as in ecstasies she saw the vision of the Virgin Mary and of Christ. His visions have not been of the same kind, either, as that of St. Simon Stock, general of the Carmelite order, who received in a vision the scapular from the Virgin Mary. As a rule the miraculous powers of spirit land have not furnished Mr. Barnett with the most pleasing class of visions. Their confirmation and verification have shown them to be of a melancholy and discouraging nature. They do not even terminate happily.

Mr. Barnett has just printed a circular telling of his visions. He explains them as follows: "For a layman to put in print what he has witnessed of the miraculous requires belief as well as courage. Three of the visions (with sign) or miracles took place at 160 Newberry avenue, Chicago, during 23 years and have been verified, while the fourth, at Annfield, Kingsmair, by Forfar, Scotland, has also been verified within four months from its appearance.

"There was nothing alarming or exciting in the appearance of these unsought visitants, and only after investigation was the character of them proved and confirmed by their verification.

"The first occurred very shortly after the great Chicago fire of 1871, when the occupants of houses in each block formed themselves into committees (to patrol their residences during the night) with watchwords, and those who were around during the time were marched off to the police station if they could not give the correct word.

"The purpose of printing these narratives is to prove before the reader the power of God, which none can deny, and yet many are loath to believe.

"Discussion or supposition is out of place.

"The fourth vision (with a sign) or miracle appeared in the hours of the early morning, as I was preparing to rise out of bed, and on looking outward and seeing the form of a man in a halo of light, as from the eastern end of the house window, the hurried glance gave me the impression of a burglar. I held my head down at the side of the bed and said, 'Who are you? What do you want here?' No reply.

"Then I steadily gazed upon the figure of a tall man, dressed in black clothes, his vest displaying considerable white bosom, smooth faced, tinged with redness in the cheeks. He did not smile, but had such a complacent, benevolent countenance beaming upon mine that I could not resist staring at him, knowing that he was an unsought visitant. I noticed particularly the shading of the hair from the left to the right side, combed backward, the ends turned toward the front, and the expansive bosom, the vest held only with one button. The limbs were shaded within six or eight inches of the knee, the rest unseen. The figure seemed about ten feet away. Nothing in the room was visible except the halo of light and the visitant as I looked outward from my bed. After two or three minutes I made preparation to light a candle on a chair at my bedside. Immediately the figure commenced to move backward very slowly to the south; then I gazed until it diminished at far distance to a mere speck, as if floating, nothing else being seen in the room or the distance.

"Afterward, on examining a photograph in the family album, my finger rested upon it, showing my friends the resemblance as to height, hair and vest with one button, but not widened out. Within four months the vision was verified, and my constant companion for seven months, who had been unable to continue his daily labor for seven years, was taken away and laid beside his beloved partner in peace."

Mr. Barnett is an old time printer and publisher of Chicago. He came west in 1851, and until the big fire had a publishing house at Lake street and Fifth avenue. He printed The Coast Pilot, which was a guide for the navigation of the lakes, and a number of other needful volumes of the early days. The fire swept away everything he had. He has thought much on spiritual things and is a great believer in the miraculous. He returned recently from a visit to Scotland, where he had his last vision.—Chicago Times-Herald.

HARD ON TOBACCO MEN.

A Short Paragraph That Will Cost Them Much Money.

The Dingley law has caused a panic among importers of tobacco, who declare that one short paragraph in the new law means a loss to them of thousands of dollars every year. The paragraph is a part of section 33 of the act which compels importers to pay duty on tobacco at the weight it goes into the bonded warehouse. This takes from tobacco men a privilege that has for many years been accorded to them by the tariff laws. Under the Wilson act and previous laws importers have had their tobacco reweighed at the time of its withdrawal from bonded warehouses, and on this weight duties were collected.

The weight of tobacco is greatly reduced during the bonded period by evaporation.

When tobacco arrives from a long ocean voyage, it is frequently insufficiently cured and has absorbed a large percentage of moisture. This moisture evaporates in the warehouse. Experts estimate that the importer saves $25 to $40 a bale on Sumatra and sometimes as high as $70 a bale on Havana leaf by paying on the dried out tobacco. Importers will now gain nothing by delay, but must pay duties at $1.85 per pound of the weight on their tobacco at the time of its arrival. They estimate that the loss to importers in New York alone will be $500,000 a year.

A Highly Gifted Indian Girl.

Miss Etta Scott of Kokomo, Ind., a teacher in the kindergarten department of the Indian schools at Fort Sill, O. T., returned home the other day, bringing with her a 5-year-old Indian girl who is a prodigy. The dusky damsel, Nahma Coffee by name, speaks English fluently, sings like a lark and executes with ease the most intricate dances. Nahma is the leader of her class and is intrusted with the direction of the drills. She was one of twins, and, according to the barbarous superstition of the Indians, was condemned to die, it being considered an ill omen to raise twins. Nahma, the little papoose, was found in the bushes in a famished condition, and Professor Cox of the Indian school took her in charge, unknown to the parents, and has adopted her as his own child. Little Nahma is remarkably bright and interesting. She holds levees every day and has a constant stream of callers.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

SOME brighter brains must identify themselves with the silver Republicans before the organization shines in Ohio.

THE Democracy must have a new issue if it would outlive the present administration. Free trade and free silver are dead. Nothing can resurrect them.

THE Populists are holding their state convention in Columbus today, and the Democratic leaders are holding their breath for fear they will lose that easily worked prop.

THE fall in the price of silver is seriously hampering the financial affairs of Mexico. The old republic may be able to pull through without repudiating a lot of its obligations, but it scarcely seems that way now.

If you would know all there is to know of the perils and riches of the Klondyke region, clip a coupon from the NEWS REVIEW, and purchase a copy of "Nuggets." The work is from the pen of the founder of Dawson City, and the information it contains is authentic.

UNFORTUNATELY for the Democratic managers they cannot turn to the record of Governor Bushnell now that they are so industriously searching for an issue. The condition of the state treasury and his splendid record of the past two years afford few opportunities for winning votes to Chapman.

MORE SCORCHING.

It was stated a few weeks ago that the city needed a new bicycle ordinance, that the old law would not answer the purpose. Council kindly passed the bill, and for a day or two scorching was unpopular. Since that time fast riders have observed that the police are not enforcing the ordinance with the promised severity, and the result is seen in much more scorching. The practice continues, and will probably continue until some one is killed or so seriously hurt that even wheelmen will see the error and cease to ride at the highest possible speed.

THE RIGHT PLATFORM.

The Republican platform is this year a platform of facts. The party goes before the people recalling the promises of the last campaign, and showing how well those promises are being carried out. The hum of industry which arises from all parts of the country is in marked contrast with the silence succeeding the inauguration of the last Democratic administration. Where now is seen increased wages and better times we then knew nothing but reductions and poverty. These things allow the Republican leaders to ask a continuance of power, the carrying of Ohio in order that the force in the senate be strengthened instead of weakened, the policy of protection endorsed instead of rebuked.

HOLDEN WAS FLIGHTY.

He Believed He Was Going to His Death.

ESCAPED FROM AN OFFICER

But Was Captured Before He Threw Himself Into a Stream—The Coraopolis Man Gave the Township Trustees No End of Trouble.

Jackson Holden, the man who caused quite a sensation in the city, Saturday afternoon, is now safely lodged in the Woodville home, ten miles south of Pittsburg, to which place he was taken yesterday by Trustees Albright and Lloyd.

The trustees returned on the midnight train, and report an uneventful journey with the exception that their patient had to be watched very closely. He imagined the trustees were taking him to be hanged, and kept up an incessant plea for mercy saying that he had committed no crime and was an innocent man. All endeavors to convince him of the true state of affairs failed.

When he was delivered at the home a man was placed to watch Holden, and when the supper bell rang he walked in the diningroom supposing Holden would follow, but such was not the case. A search was instituted at once for the missing man, and the physician of the home jumping in a buggy succeeded in catching Holden just as he was about to jump into the creek.

Holden bid the trustees goodbye, and was sure last night would be his last on earth. The trustees speak in the highest terms of their treatment while at the home.

A MODEL INSTITUTION.

The Trustees Are Pleased With the Allegheny Home.

Trustees Lloyd and Albright are enthusiastic over the Allegheny county home at Woodville, where they took the man Holden, yesterday. The place is in charge of Superintendent and Mrs. S. W. Lee, who are assisted by Miss Hazlewood, Miss Raunshausen and Dr. W. A. Jones. There are 350 adults and 27 children at the home, and they are well cared for. The farm contains 205 acres of land, all of it under cultivation, and they have 20 cows, 40 hogs and five horses. The dining rooms are models, and the paupers march in, take their seats and begin eating at the top of a bell. The home is considered one of the best managed in the country.

A Reward.
NEW CUMBERLAND, W. Va., Aug. 9, 1897.

The county court, of Hancock county, W. Va., will pay the sum of $300 for the arrest and conviction of the person who, on the 30th day of July, 1897, committed a criminal assault on the person of Mrs. Ella Warren at her home in the aforesaid county and state.
A. F. WILKIN, Sheriff.

At the Freight Depot.

Business at the freight station was rather slack yesterday. There were but 13 cars loaded, and 7 unloaded. The total number of cars handled during the day is estimated at 93.

A car load of water melons arrived in the city early this morning. They came from St. Louis and were sent by freight.

Only One Arrest.

There was only one arrest last night and that was made by Officer Earl, who brought Jack Delaney to the jail. Jack was drunk and making a little more noise than necessary. He was fined $6.60 and is still in.

No one was released yesterday and the same old timers are still there.

On the River.

During the last 48 hours the river has been falling so fast that it seems now all the boats in the lower waters will not be able to go to the upper ports this week. The marks at this port now show a stage of 3.9 feet of water. Passed down, Ben Hur and Keystone State; up, Princess.

A Special Service.

Father Smythe left for Salineville this morning, where he conducted a special service in the Catholic church of that place.

The young ladies of the Women's Christian Temperance union home will give a lawn fete on Tuesday evening, Aug. 10. Entertainment given by the phonograph. You are all invited to help the good work along. Admission 10 cents.

A SALEM MAN

Locked Up Until the Grand Jury Considers His Case.

LISBON, Aug. 10.—[Special]—Officer Robinson, of Salem, yesterday afternoon brought John Shaffer to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of burglary. He is charged with entering the Knowles & Knowles store in Salem last Saturday night.

Alice A. Armstrong has entered suit against Lucinda C. Armstrong to recover judgment for $869. An attachment was issued last evening against a lot in Rogers owned by the defendant to secure the amount. The action is based on a note given 21 years ago for $430, upon which partial payment has been made. The property attached is that in which the Rogers postoffice is located.

Kansas May Have an Exhibit.

Governor Leedy is sounding the people of the state with reference to a Kansas exhibit at the transmississippi exposition at Omaha.

"I do not know yet what will be done," said the governor the other day. "It will never do for Kansas to make an exhibit unless it is representative of the resources of our state—vegetable, mineral, mechanical and industrial. The legislature made no provision for the cost of an exhibit, so that whatever is done must be done through the public spirit of our citizens. I want to say, however, that I will have no hand in the matter unless I am satisfied that it will not be a side show for the west to the big show of the eastern manufacturers. If it will be, as its name indicates, a transmississippi exposition, it should be a success. By this I mean that the products of the transmississippi states must be given the place of honor in the exposition and be the big show. Let the eastern people see what the transmississippi country has instead of asking the transmississippi people to go and see what the eastern people have. If the exposition is conducted along this line, I believe it will be a success."—Kansas City Times.

Senator Hanna's Big Enterprise.

United States Senator Mark Hanna is on the eve of engaging in a mammoth enterprise, that of going into China near Fuchau and opening up on a big scale the immense coal and iron field there, which has barely been touched, owing to the antiquated methods of the Celestials. Hanna's head man was to have been at Springfield, O., the other day for a conference about the matter with Bishop W. N. Brewster of Hing Hua, China, who is there for a few weeks on a visit to his old home. Mr. Brewster stated that he had received advices that Mr. Hanna's agent would be there shortly. Bishop Brewster is in high favor with the officials and leading citizens of the two places and has introduced a great deal of American machinery and the appliances of civilization in and around Hing Hua. Mr. Brewster appears to be confident the Hanna deal will be a big success.—St. Louis Republic.

Robbed a Coachman.

John Given, coachman for Col. John N. Taylor, was robbed of a lot of clothing this morning while he was absent from the house. Given had a furnished room in the stable loft, and when he left the place everything was locked. Given thinks he has a clue to the robber, and it is thought he will recover his property.

Still a Little Money.

The report of City Treasurer Herbert to be submitted this evening will show the following balances: General, $485.55; street, $1,042.16; wharf, $24.59; fire, $402.42; police, $663.95; light, $719.40; sinking, $4,034.40; interest, $1,971; sanitary, $393.93; sewer, $622.55; bridge $2,342.19.

Viewed the Boat.

The Queen City arrived at this port at noon today, and as soon as she tied in a crowd of sightseers went on board and inspected the craft. The boat had a long list of passengers, and a heavy cargo. It may be possible that it will not leave Pittsburg until there is another rise.

Swift Flying Clouds.

Mr. Clayton of the Blue Hill observatory, near Boston, reports that observations made there show that the average speed with which clouds between 8,000 and 9,000 feet high move is 60 miles an hour in midsummer and 110 miles an hour in midwinter. The swiftest flight of a cloud yet measured was 236 miles an hour.

Killed a Cow.

During the heavy storm early this morning, the lightning struck and instantly killed a valuable cow belonging to John Goddard, at his farm about one mile from the city, on the campmeeting road.

A Sick Agent.

Edward Carter, advance advertising agent of the Hi Henry show, is ill in his apartments in the Hotel Grand. From present indications, his trouble may terminate in typhoid pneumonia.

HE ONLY DID HIS DUTY

Elder Jones Exonerates Governor Bushnell.

ECHO OF URBANA LYNCHING.

Delay in Filing Quo Warranto Suits Due to Mr. Bushnell's Illness and a Thorough Examination of the Law.

Anent the statement that Governor Bushnell was after the colored vote of the state when he directed the attorney general to file quo warranto suits in the supreme court to oust from office Mayor Ganson and Sheriff McLain of Urbana because of their alleged misconduct at the time of the lynching of "Click" Mitchell, Elder Joshua H. Jones, chairman of the colored citizens' committee, has written the following:

Columbus, O., Aug. 6.

To the Editor:

From certain quarters there are now many misrepresentations and false criticisms being poured out upon Governor Bushnell's motives and actions as to the suits in quo warranto against Mayor Ganson and Sheriff McLain of Urbana, O. Some say that he is playing for political effect, some say for deception; some say he was too slow to be sincere, others say that he ought to have investigated sooner, etc. I am in position to say, having taken a personal interest in the matter from the first, that these statements are false and those criticisms unfair and not justified by the facts.

For myself, I believe that Governor Bushnell and Attorney General Monnett are sincere and in earnest in their attempts to uphold law and order and the constitutional rights of citizens, and to wipe the foul blot of shame and disgrace from our fair state, placed upon her by Mayor Ganson, Sheriff McLain and their followers at Urbana, and thereby teach anarchists and rioters that in all supposed, alleged or genuine cases of crime the state of Ohio is competent to deal with her offenders. I also believe that they should have the confidence, approval, aid, endorsement and good will of all law and order loving people throughout the country without regard to color, race or party.

Note the facts in the case: On June 4 the mob lynched Mitchell. Coroner Hewitt then pretended to hold an inquest over Mitchell's remains, and afterward pretended to hold another over the bodies of Baker and Bell, in which he tried to condemn to the gallows the great state of Ohio for killing and wounding innocent rioters. By the time these farcical investigations were over the month of June had grown old.

On June 20 and 27 my first two sermons were delivered in this city on the Urbana lynching. On June 29 I met the governor in the state auditor's office in the presence of Dr. Dickerson and there laid before him the complaints of law-abiding, order-loving people of Ohio. The governor frankly stated in this first interview that he felt keenly the disgrace brought upon the state by the mob; that he was then in consultation with the attorney general as to what could be done in the matter.

On the evening of the 28th of June I met a number of citizens at Armory hall, where the question was fully discussed pro and con, and a set of resolutions passed asking the governor to instruct the attorney general to bring suit in quo warranto in the supreme court against the officials of Urbana and Champaign county. At this meeting a committee of seven was appointed to convey the resolutions to the governor.

In the second interview the governor assured us of his readiness to do his duty, but stated that Attorney General Monnett was in New York on business for the state, and as soon as he returned the law would be consulted so as to find out just what the governor's authority was in the premises.

On July 13 we called again, but the governor was unavoidably absent, but left word with Secretary Rodgers to show us Attorney General Monnett's opinion.

On July 22 we met Governor Bushnell again. He assured us that his duty in the matter was clear, and that as soon as facts were laid before him which would warrant action he was ready to act. The committee laid the facts before the governor and gave names of witnesses who would testify. The governor was called home by illness about July 23 and remained there from sickness until August 2.

Immediately upon his return he ordered Attorney General Monnett to proceed with the case. It will thus be seen from the foregoing that the governor from first to last acted in good faith and in keeping with the gravity of the crime and the dignity of his office.

Having been chairman of the citizens' committee and active in the matter from first to last, I know all the facts in the case. I am sure that the governor deserves the confidence of the people and is sincere and earnest.

and acts truly from a sense of duty. The stories that the governor gave the committee money to meet expenses is purely false, slanderous and malicious. I was chairman of the committee and was present at every meeting and interview with the governor, and money in any form was never spoken of by the governor or committee. We used our own money for expenses. Honor to whom honor is due, and certainly it is due the governor and the attorney general for the noble stand they have taken.

JOSHUA H. JONES,
Chairman Citizens' Committee.

THE AMBULANCE CHASER.

A New Occupation For Lawyers' Agents In St. Louis.

There are about half a dozen men in St. Louis who make a living in rather a peculiar manner. They have come to be known as "ambulance chasers," and one or more of them can be found on the scene of almost every accident.

The occupation of the "ambulance chaser" is rather a new one, although the methods he uses have been used to gain the same ends for years back. The "ambulance chaser" is in the employ of some lawyer who makes a specialty of handling damage suits.

When an accident of any sort happens, the "ambulance chaser" is right to the front in the crowd which gathers. He gets the name and address of the person who is injured, or if the victim is so badly injured that he cannot give his name and address the lawyer's agent follows the ambulance to the dispensary, where he usually finds a way to learn what he wishes.

In a few days he calls on the person who was injured and explains to him what a good case he has if he will sue for damages. If the injured person has not sufficient means to prosecute the suit or shows a disinclination to do so the "chaser" get in his fine work and offers to find an attorney who will take the case and carry it through to completion for a percentage of the amount gained as damages, all this at no cost to the plaintiff, for if the suit is lost the lawyer gets no pay. The smooth "chaser" usually succeeds in getting the case on these terms.

The "ambulance chaser" and his boss, the attorney, who lives by drumming up suits to recover for injuries sustained in accidents, are blocking up the dockets of the courts with cases. The street car companies are the principal sufferers, and some of them are made defendants in cases of damages for accidents which never occurred. Some of the jobs put up on these corporations are almost beyond belief.

In one case where an old man sued to recover a large amount for the loss of a leg, upon the allegation that he had been thrown from the rear platform, it was proved by the testimony of his neighbors that he had been injured by falling from a window in his own house. He finally admitted that he had been induced to bring suit by a lawyer's agent.—St. Louis Republic.

CONGRESS ON PRISONS.

It Is to Convene In Austin, Tex., In October Next.

Governor Culberson of Texas has addressed the governors of the several states in reference to the national prisons congress to be held at Austin Oct. 16 to 20, saying: "It is scarcely necessary to suggest the great importance of this congress and the wide reaching effects its deliberations may have upon the prison population of the several states. One of the chief objects of prosecution for crime being the reformation of criminals, no more humane and laudable work can command public attention than the care and treatment of convicts with the view of returning them to the ranks of good citizenship."

"At the season of the year when the congress will be held the weather here will be agreeable and pleasant. The citizens of Austin are public spirited and hospitable, and thus, besides advancing a great cause, the delegates will have an opportunity of seeing, under favorable conditions, our great state and judging for themselves our limitless resources and future destiny. It is probable also that an excursion to Mexico after the close of the congress can be arranged at a low rate. I therefore respectfully request that you appoint such number of persons interested in prison reform as in your judgment may be proper as delegates to this congress."

Hens and Iron.

A French physician has invented a method by which he says iron can be given in large doses. Hens, he noticed, have powerful internal organs. They can digest considerable quantities of iron and then render it back, through the albumen of their eggs, in a form which is easily digested by the weaker stomach of mankind. So he feeds his hens with what he calls "a very absorbent salt of iron," mingled with grains of wheat, and they lay eggs extremely rich in iron already digested.

HOLDEN WAS FLIGHTY.

He Believed He Was Going to His Death.

ESCAPED FROM AN OFFICER

But Was Captured Before He Threw Himself Into a Stream—The Coraopolis Man Gave the Township Trustees No End of Trouble.

Jackson Holden, the man who caused quite a sensation in the city, Saturday afternoon, is now safely lodged in the Woodville home, ten miles south of Pittsburg, to which place he was taken yesterday by Trustees Albright and Lloyd.

The trustees returned on the midnight train, and report an uneventful journey with the exception that their patient had to be watched very closely. He imagined the trustees were taking him to be hanged, and kept up an incessant plea for mercy saying that he had committed no crime and was an innocent man. All endeavors to convince him of the true state of affairs failed.

When he was delivered at the home a man was placed to watch Holden, and when the supper bell rang he walked in the diningroom supposing Holden would follow, but such was not the case. A search was instituted at once for the missing man, and the physician of the home jumping in a buggy succeeded in catching Holden just as he was about to jump into the creek.

Holden bid the trustees goodbye, and was sure last night would be his last on earth. The trustees speak in the highest terms of their treatment while at the home.

A MODEL INSTITUTION.

The Trustees Are Pleased With the Allegheny Home.

Trustees Lloyd and Albright are enthusiastic over the Allegheny county home at Woodville, where they took the man Holden, yesterday. The place is in charge of Superintendent and Mrs. S. W. Lee, who are assisted by Miss Hazlewood, Miss Raunshausen and Dr. W. A. Jones. There are 350 adults and 27 children at the home, and they are well cared for. The farm contains 205 acres of land, all of it under cultivation, and they have 20 cows, 40 hogs and five horses. The dining rooms are models, and the paupers march in, take their seats and begin eating at the tap of a bell. The home is considered one of the best managed in the country.

SYMPATHY FOR MINERS

It Was Warmly Expressed at the Rink.

SEVERAL EXCELLENT ADDRESSES

The Need of the Strikers Was Plainly shown, and the Generous Union Men Proved Their Sympathy in a Manner More Substantial Than Words.

The union men of East Liverpool last night expressed their sympathy in a manner which can leave no doubt as to their position on the coal strike. The meeting at the rink was largely attended, the Haines and Manley bands adding to the occasion by making excellent music. Chairman J. J. Weisend put forward the object of the meeting, and introduced Thomas Mumford.

In part said: "We have assembled here this evening in this hall to pass resolutions for the striking miners of our country who are starving. This struggle is an old one and has furnished ample material for the essayist and orator. For years capital has fought the battle and divided the spoils. It has had the protection in the part of education and law. What the final issue will be in this struggle depends upon the strength of these men. So deadly have these labor conflicts been in the past it makes one think this is no Christian country and also makes one think there is no God. I want to say this, that if capital insists on the demands it has made in the past, I have a very poor opinion as to how long this country will last. If this is allowed to go on, the repetition of the recent scene in Spain will be done here. Sheriffs and other officers of the law are trying to make us think we are law-breakers. Not so. There never has been a strike where the sympathy of the country has been so extended as it has been in this instance, where the coal miners are trying for a mere substance. Slaves were better treated in their day than are the coal miners of today."

"I am a stranger," said J. M. Evans, "and have been taken in, (applause.) I am an American citizen, and consider the American citizen the noblest work of God. The first man who trod the world was a laboring man, and he was the son of a carpenter, and he was Jesus of Nazareth. I was in Pennsylvania recently, and when I saw men enter the bowels of the earth, to be brought out dead, mangled, and only to be recognized by their dinner buckets or tobacco boxes, I thought of the mine owner who gave them hard bread, and then expects a seat in Heaven. I believe in capital, but the man who owns a mine or a pottery, should divide the profits of his business with his helpmate. Men and women of East Liverpool, open your pockets and help this cause that must be won in the end. May God grant that this struggle for bread and life be won, and then the Star Spangled banner will wave over this land in a breeze of millions of cheers."

J. M. McKee, of Salineville, was then introduced. He said in part: "The average coal miner earns 42½ cents a day as a rule. A miner's family consists of five people, which leaves a little over eight cents a person. On this no person can have the necessities of life. The labor saving machinery has been partly the cause of this. Mining machinery was first invented in 1860. These devices are capable of doing the work of two miners. The labor question is one that we should not lose sight of. A judge has set aside the semi-monthly pay day, and this will cause more hand to mouth living. Gentleman let me ask you to help the coal miner as much as you can, and they in turn, when you are trying for a right, I assure you, will extend a helping hand."

Squire E. W. Hill then read the following resolution:

WHEREAS there are at this time 150,000 coal miners in our country endeavoring by peaceable and lawful means to secure a more equitable proportion of the proceeds derived from their labor, and

WHEREAS their employers in various instances have invoked the aid of the courts and by means of injunctions and enjoinders, have denied them the right of free speech and peaceable assembly in violation of the spirit of our institutions and first amendment to the constitution of our government which reads: "Congress shall make no law abridging the freedom of speech, or the right of the people, peaceably, to assemble,"

Resolved, We, citizens of East Liverpool, in mass meeting assembled, this 9th day of August, 1897, do hereby extend our sympathies to our fellow countrymen, the coal miners, in their just and lawful contention for an increase of wages, and bid them God speed to victory.

"We do hereby condemn the injustice that is being wrought upon them, in the name of law, and appeal to the citizens of our country to, by force of sentiment and protest, call a halt to the base use to which the legal processes have been put; and further

"We pledge ourselves to lend a helping hand to the coal miners, while their struggle continues, by contributing according to our means."

"I wish to thank the Musical union, those who painted the banners, the Union Planing Mill company for donating the seats, the NEWS REVIEW for the bills and the working force for getting them out, and the Crisis, too, I suppose," continued the squire.

The following subscriptions were reported: Trades council, $30; sagger-makers, $5; dippers, $5; carpenters, $5; pressers, $10; glassworkers, $5; NEWS REVIEW chapel, $5; Union pottery, $5; Musical union, $10; grocery clerks, $5; stage employees, $5; Otto Schmidtbauer, $5; Jiggermen's local, $10; cash, $81.15. Total, $171.15.

Mr. Ruhe, of the glass workers, closed the meeting by saying, "You cannot be brothers unless you take you Christianity to your lodge room. Picture to yourself two men, free will agents of God. One is capital and the other labor. One goes in a mine and takes his life in his hands, the other in the office enjoying life. What a happy picture the coal miner and his family present when he greets his wife and children as he comes from the mine. When he enters the pit on the morrow he does so with a down hearted feeling. Men have erected things that are against God, and those things we can't eradicate. Unless we unitedly take hold these things can't be changed. We are just as much to blame for our condition as is our employer. Let us be just, just to our God, our families and our employe. Let us earn our dollar honestly and spend it in the same manner. Whatever you do, do it honestly and above board. If you don't notice it, there is one who does, and He will reward you when the proper time comes. God created, and God rewards. He set an example, I ask you to follow it."

Mr. Weisend then dismissed the audience.

NO APPLES,

Neither Will There Be a Great Many Peaches.

The August crop report for Ohio, issued yesterday by the state board of agriculture, shows that the wheat crop is found even better in the harvest than was supposed at the time the crop was standing. Last month the percentage was estimated at 86 but the bulletin gives it as 90 per cent as compared with an average crop from year to year. Corn prospects are reported as improved, but no percentage is given, as the crop is not yet far enough advanced. Oats is 79 per cent, timothy 87, pastures 99, apples 37, peaches 15, berries 93.

HOLDING AN INQUEST

Over the Remains of the Man Killed at Industry.

Doctor White, of New Brighton, coroner of Beaver county, accompanied by County Detective W. H. Fetter, went to Industry, this morning for the purpose of holding an inquest over the remains of Ray Wilts, who was run down and killed near that place Sunday night. Wilts was a farm hand, and had no relatives in that community.

Orders Are Coming.

A manufacturer said today that his concern has received more orders within the last few weeks than have come to the pottery within the same time for four years. He explained further that they were orders from men who are financially sound.

BIG BARN WAS BURNED

Lightning Struck It During the Storm.

TELEPHONE WIRES WERE DOWN

This Part of the World Treated to a Thunder Shower of Unusual Proportions—It Rained All Morning in Lisbon—An Electrical Display.

The thunder shower which awoke at least half the people of the city early this morning, was general in this section and did some damage.

The barn owned by Henry Moore, on the cemetery road, a short distance from Wellsville, was struck by lightning, and in a short time had been entirely consumed. In addition to the building, and on this Mr. Moore has not yet placed an estimate, machinery to the value of $1,000 and newly harvested crops worth $500, went up with the smoke. There was no insurance.

The storm was also responsible for very poor telephone service to the northern part of the county. Two sets of lines of the overland system between here and Lisbon were down, and Manager Swaney and an assistant left here at 8 o'clock to repair the damage.

Reports from Lisbon and the country north of the city say that while the sun shone pleasantly here it was raining in torrents all morning through that section.

The brisk thunder shower at noon caused no great damage, but sparks flew from any number of telephones in town and rendered not a few useless.

Disproves an Old Saying.

LISBON, August 10. — [Special] — A barn on the farm owned by Daniel McAllister, near Dunganon, was struck by lightning during the storm and completely destroyed. It contained many tons of hay and a quantity of wheat and oats. The loss will reach $4,000 with $500 insurance. A barn was destroyed by lightning at the same place a year ago.

Made a Long Speech.

Rev. J. G. Slayter, pastor of the Christian church in Steubenville, and very well known in this city, addressed a large crowd from the steps of the courthouse last Sunday, and spent much of his time showing what he terms the methods of Steubenville Republicans.

The Time Is Short.

The question of the hour is, are you in the market for the best line of clothing in America? We must sell this stock at some low price. We have a customer for our stock when reduced to a certain point.

We are nearing that point very rapidly therefore, we say again the time is short, and if you are needing a spring suit, now is your opportunity to purchase at less price than manufacturer's price. Remember all is for sale, stock, fixtures and lease. All must go quickly at some price, as we are positively retiring from the business, and anxious to do so as quickly as possible. We say you can get prices of us that no firm in the state of Ohio can offer. Don't delay. This is an important matter for you.

SYMPATHY FOR MINERS

It Was Warmly Expressed at the Rink.

SEVERAL EXCELLENT ADDRESSES

The Need of the Strikers Was Plainly Shown, and the Generous Union Men Proved Their Sympathy in a Manner More Substantial Than Words.

The union men of East Liverpool last night expressed their sympathy in a manner which can leave no doubt as to their position on the coal strike. The meeting at the rink was largely attended, the Haines and Manley bands adding to the occasion by making excellent music. Chairman J. J. Weisend put forward the object of the meeting, and introduced Thomas Mumford.

In part said: "We have assembled here this evening in this hall to pass resolutions for the striking miners of our country who are starving. SOME FOOTBALL NEWS

The Boys Are Preparing For an Active Season.

ONLY GOOD MEN ARE WANTED

A Number of Strong Fellows Are Trying For What Is Expected to Be the Leading Team—Other Elevens Will Be Organized.

The Rugby football team will meet tomorrow evening at city hall for the purpose of electing a manager, coach and captain. The following persons will try for the team: James Wheatley, Peck Carnahan, Rafe Alvis, Ralph Woods, D. McCurran, Dave and Tag McLane, Hugh McDermitt, Thomas McClure, Herbert Pollock and a number of others. An effort will be made to get in condition so a game may be played on Labor day.

The West End will have a team in the field.

The Rovers commenced active practice yesterday afternoon. They will practice three times a week until the season opens.

From present indications the coming season will be the most active the football enthusiasts of the city have ever known. They are preparing to form a team which will not only hold its own at home, but will take care of its colors when it leaves town. There are a number of residents who held a place in the football contests of their various colleges, and abundant material which can be made to profit by their experience.

Dick Padden, in the first game at Cincinnati, yesterday, figured very much with the stick, and had four hits to his credit.

The East Liverpool team are making arrangements to play the Rochester club next Saturday afternoon.

A team is being organized in the city to play the Wellsville clerks next Friday afternoon.

WHO IS GOING TO BUILD

On the Ground to Be Vacated by the Rink Company?

The exclusive announcement by the NEWS REVIEW last evening that the Fifth street rink would soon pass into history caused a vast deal of comment in the city, and there was much speculation as to what sort of a building would be erected on the ground. The people who are believed to know something about it refused to say a word, and are keeping their secret very well.

The company will meet this evening for the purpose of deciding on the best method of disposing of the old building.

Cultivating His Voice.

It was at Fernwood. The boys had spent a hard day fishing, and were sitting on the veranda at Colonel Hill's cottage singing and enjoying the cool breeze which swept down the Little Beaver. Suddenly one rose from the cracker box on which he had been balanced, and, putting on his hat and coat, turned toward the steps.

"Where are you going?" called out the party in chorus.

"I think I'll go up to Bill Grum's and have him run his cultivator over my voice," came back the answer, as he disappeared into the depths of the forest.

G. A. R. In Buffalo.

Excursion tickets to Buffalo for the G. A. R. National Encampment will be sold via Pennsylvania lines Aug. 21, 22, and 23. Return limit will include Aug. 31, with privilege of extending the limit to Sept. 20, inclusive. For rates, time of trains and other details apply to nearest Pennsylvania line ticket agent or address J. K. Dillon, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Prosperity Has Struck Them.

The Cone Fire Clay works, at Salineville, will resume operations next week, after a three months' shut down. Secretary Weaver stated this morning, that enough orders had been booked to keep their works running full time for several months. Large orders came this morning from Chicago, Cleveland and Jersey City.

Gone to Chautauqua.

The following people left for Chautauqua this morning: Mrs. Louisa Thompson, Mrs. Jennie Ralston, the Misses Kerr, Miss Lallie McKenty, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chambers, Miss Anna Martin, Miss Elizabeth Martin, Miss Josephine Hammond and Rev. J. R. Green. They will remain there 15 days.

Klondyke

The Land of Golden Nuggets.

JOSEPH LADUE,

the new Bonanza King of the Klondyke Gold Regions, gives the facts. His book reads like "The Arabian Nights," BUT Joseph Ladue KNOWS whereof he writes. He was the first man on the spot when the first gold was discovered last August, 1896. He located one rich claim and immediately purchased twelve others at a low price before their value was known. He has refused $100,000 for any ONE of these claims, as they are rich with virgin gold nuggets, beyond the dream of avarice. Joseph Ladue then at the mouth of the Klondyke and Yukon Rivers, by erecting the first house in the region in September, one month after the gold was first discovered. He bought 178 acres from the government on the city site where his town lots 150x50 are now selling for $5,000 each.

Mr. Ladue was fortunate enough to be successful in his trading post investments to have on hand ample capital to carry out his plans, and there is no man living who is better posted on Alaska and the great North West Territories than Mr. Joseph Ladue. He has just returned from that country to his old home in Schuler Falls, N. Y., where he passed a large portion of his boyhood and early manhood. Mr. Ladue left his home nearly twenty years ago to seek his fortune in the west going first to the Black Hills, where he was successful in gold mining, thence to Arizona and the Pacific coast and finally located in Alaska and the northwest, where he has covered almost the entire country since 1882. Mr. Ladue is a typical pioneer: strong, hardy and resolute—a man of iron as one must needs be to go through the hardships he has and come out with a constitution unbroken and unimpaired at about the age of 43. Mr. Ladue has not only worked his muscles to good advantage to himself with the result of an abundance of the world's goods, far beyond the dreams of men, but he has evidently all this time been closely observing the conditions of that strange country—the Yukon Valley—which has so suddenly become one of the great centers upon which human interest throughout the world is focussed.

When the wonderful stories began to come down from the Yukon country it was naturally concluded that it was at least half exaggeration. That any such amount of gold could be taken in so short a time from a country like that under the most unfavorable conditions was held to be incredible. But when the great bags of virgin gold began to be poured out upon mint counters in San Francisco under the eyes of the whole world (for modern journalism does this, annihilating time and space) people began to wonder and the wonder grew day by day as the real facts were disclosed, and now people who are well informed as to the facts declare that half the truth has not been told of the golden treasures of the Yukon Valley.

As we have already said, there is no man today alive who knows more about this wonderful country than does Mr. Ladue. What makes his talk of it especially interesting and reliable is the fact that his knowledge of it is practical. It has not been gained from hearsay nor from desultory visits made now and then at certain favorable seasons of the year, but from steady living there through the long summer days and the long winter nights, year in and year out for 15 years, where he now owns the best mining claims on the Klondyke and its tributaries.

In presenting his book to the public we do so knowing that it is by an authority on the subject of which he writes. His first work entitled is a brief description of the new gold regions, and anyone desiring authentic information should not fail to avail themselves of our

SOME FOOTBALL NEWS

The Boys Are Preparing For an Active Season.

ONLY GOOD MEN ARE WANTED

A Number of Strong Fellows Are Trying
For What Is Expected to Be the Leading Team—Other Elevens Will Be Organized.

The Rugby football team will meet tomorrow evening at city hall for the purpose of electing a manager, coach and captain. The following persons will try for the team: James Wheatley, Peck Carnahan, Rafe Alvis, Ralph Woods, D. McCurran, Dave and Tag McLane, Hugh McDermitt, Thomas McClure, Herbert Pollock and a number of others. An effort will be made to get in condition so a game may be played on Labor day.

The West End will have a team in the field.

The Rovers commenced active practice yesterday afternoon. They will practice three times a week until the season opens.

From present indications the coming season will be the most active the foot ball enthusiasts of the city have ever known. They are preparing to form a team which will not only hold its own at home, but will take care of its colors when it leaves town. There are a number of residents who held a place in the foot ball contests of their various colleges, and abundant material which can be made to profit by their experience.

Dick Padden, in the first game at Cincinnati, yesterday, figured very much with the stick, and had four hits to his credit.

The East Liverpool team are making arrangements to play the Rochester club next Saturday afternoon.

A team is being organized in the city to play the Wellsville clerks next Friday afternoon.

WHC IS GOING TO BUILD

On the Ground to Be Vacated by the Rink Company?

The exclusive announcement by the NEWS REVIEW last evening that the Fifth street rink would soon pass into history caused a vast deal of comment in the city, and there was much speculation as to what sort of a building would be erected on the ground. The people who are believed to know something about it refused to say a word, and are keeping their secret very well.

The company will meet this evening for the purpose of deciding on the best method of disposing of the old building.

Cultivating His Voice.

It was at Fernwood. The boys had spent a hard day fishing, and were sitting on the veranda at Colonel Hill's cottage singing and enjoying the cool breeze which swept down the Little Beaver. Suddenly one rose from the cracker box on which he had been balanced, and, putting on his hat and coat, turned toward the steps.

"Where are you going?" called out the party in chorus.

"I think I'll go to Bill Grim's and have him run his cultivator over my voice," came back the answer, as he disappeared into the depths of the forest.

G. A. R. In Buffalo.

Excursion tickets to Buffalo for the G. A. R. National Encampment will be sold via Pennsylvania lines Aug. 21, 22, and 23. Return limit will include Aug. 31, with privilege of extending the limit to Sept. 30, inclusive. For rates, time of trains and other details apply to nearest Pennsylvania line ticket agent or address J. K. Dillon, Pittsburgh, Pa. *

Prosperity Has Struck Them.

The Cone Fire Clay works, at Salineville, will resume operations next week, after a three months' shut down. Secretary Weaver stated this morning, that enough orders had been booked to keep their works running full time for several months. Large orders came this morning from Chicago, Cleveland and Jersey City.

Gone to Chautauqua.

The following people left for Chautauqua this morning: Mrs. Louisa Thompson, Mrs. Jennie Ralston, the Misses Kerr, Miss Lillie McKenty, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chambers, Miss Anna Martin, Miss Elizabeth Martin, Miss Josephine Hammond and Rev. J. R. Green. They will remain there 15 days.

Shipping Cattle.

P. N. McBane, who sent a lot of wool to the eastern markets some weeks ago, shipped a lot of cattle to East Liberty stock market last night. The price he received was higher than in the past.

Klondyke

The Land of Golden Nuggets.

JOSEPH LADUE,

the new Bonanza King of the Klondyke Gold Regions, gives the facts. His book reads like "The Arabian Nights," BUT Joseph Ladue KNOWS whereof he writes. He was the first man on the spot when the first gold was discovered last August, 1896. He located one rich claim and immediately purchased twelve others at a low price before their value was known. He has refused $100,000 for any ONE of these claims, as they are rich with virgin gold nuggets, beyond the dream of avarice. Joseph Ladue then at the mouth of the Klondyke and Yukon Rivers, by erecting the first house in the region in September, one month after the gold was first discovered. He bought 178 acres from the government on the city site where his town lots 150x50 are now selling for $5,000 each.

Established Dawson City

Mr. Ladue was fortunate enough to be successful in his trading post investments to have on hand ample capital to carry out his plans, and there is no man living who is better posted on Alaska and the great North West Territories than Mr. Joseph Ladue. He has just returned from that country to his old home in Schuler Falls, N. Y., where he passed a large portion of his boyhood and early manhood. Mr. Ladue left his home nearly twenty years ago to seek his fortune in the west going first to the Black Hills, where he was successful in gold mining, thence to Arizona and the Pacific coast and finally located in Alaska and the northwest, where he has covered almost the entire country since 1882. Mr. Ladue is a typical pioneer: strong, hardy and resolute—a man of iron as one must needs be to go through the hardships he has and come out with a constitution unbroken and unimpaired at about the age of 43. Mr. Ladue has not only worked his muscles to good advantage to himself with the result of an abundance of the world's goods, far beyond the dreams of men, but he has evidently all this time been closely observing the conditions of that strange country—the Yukon Valley—which has so suddenly become one of the great centers upon which human interest throughout the world is focussed.

When the wonderful stories began to come down from the Yukon country it was naturally concluded that it was at least half exaggeration. That any such amount of gold could be taken in so short a time from a country like that under the most most unfavorable conditions was held to be incredible. But when the great bags of virgin gold began to be poured out upon mint counters in San Francisco under the eyes of the whole world (for modern journalism does this, annihilating time and space) people began to wonder and the wonder grew day by day as the real facts were disclosed, and now people who are well informed as to the facts declare that half the truth has not been told of the golden treasures of the Yukon Valley.

As we have already said, there is no man today alive who knows more about this wonderful country than does Mr. Ladue. What makes his talk of it specially interesting and reliable is the fact that his knowledge of it is practical. It has not been gained from hearsay nor from desultory visits made now and then at certain favorable seasons of the year, but from steady living there through the long summer days and the long winter nights, year in and year out for 15 years, where he now owns the best mining claims on the Klondyke and its tributaries.

In presenting his book to the public we do so knowing that it is by an authority on the subject of which he writes. His first work entitled

is a brief description of the new gold regions, and anyone desiring authentic information should not fail to avail themselves of our

AFTER THE BUNCOERS

Green Goods Men May Be Landed.

OFFICERS HAVE BEEN HERE

The United States Authorities Have Reason to Believe That Some Men They Would Like to See Behind the Bars Reside In This Place, and Are After Them.

The United States authorities have been thinking for some time that there are men in East Liverpool who should be behind the bars of some safe prison, and if they can obtain the necessary evidence a few arrests will be made before the swallows depart for the south.

Some time ago the government attempted to root out the green goods evil, and the secret service was so successful in its efforts that the sharpers in New York and Boston quit using the mails. A number were convicted, and the others turned to branches of the business less dangerous. Recently the practice was resumed, and the authorities at once became active.

Not long ago a government official came to the city and remained here several days. He was looking for the parties who provide the green goods men with lists of names. The success he met is not known, but he quietly left the city. A resident who is in position to know hinted to the NEWS REVIEW that something startling might come to light at any time.

NEW TRUSTEES.

Liverpool Cottagers Had the Best of the Election.

The stockholders of Spring Grove held their annual meeting last evening at the dormitory, and elected the following trustees: C. Metsch, George Ashbaugh, N. T. Ashbaugh, George Croxall, J. E. Brookes, Benjamin Harker, J. W. Patterson, S. T. Herbert, F. A. Sebring, Al Litchberger and T. R. Andrews. There was no other business transacted, and the new trustees will organize in the near future.

The ball teams last evening were captained by John Patterson and Bill Auerwaeter, but the Patterson's were not in the game, and met defeat by a score of 23 to 0.

The mesmerist of the ground is still playing his vocation among the small boys, and now puts them to sleep with the greatest of ease.

Rev. S. B. Salmon last evening delivered an interesting address to a large audience.

COOK STREET IMPROVEMENT

Will Be One of the Things Discussed at Council.

Council will meet this evening, and it will likely be a lengthy session. An effort will be made to have some action taken on the Cook street improvement, as W. L. Thompson has secured the waivers of all the property owners but Ravi and Brozka, and they say they will not ask damages if the street is changed to the proposed grade, but will not sign a waiver. The improvement of other streets will also be finally settled. The pay roll will be passed, and it is probable the gas ordinance and the contemplated repairs of city hall will be discussed.

STILL AT WORK.

Sheriff Wilkins Has Not Given Up the Chase.

Sheriff Wilkins continues to search for the man who assaulted Mrs. Warren on Holbert's run more than a week ago. He has followed a number of clues, but nothing of importance has developed. Mrs. Warren believes that she can identify the man, and the sheriff if he can locate him, will do nothing until after she is sure that he is the right party.

Got the Wrong Letter.

Not long ago a well-known young pharmacist of the city received a letter. It was written by a feminine hand, and contained some things he knew were not intended for him. He was mystified until a friend handed him another letter which he knew was his, and he in turn gave the visitor what he had received, and the mystery was explained. Their fair friend had gotten the missives into the wrong envelopes.

Pretty Printing.

OUR work is not always perfect; but nine times out of ten, and six days in the week, we are doing the best work in eastern Ohio. We're equipped for it.

AN ARGUMENT:—There are eggs and eggs; the egg of yesterday looks, feels, measures and weighs like the egg of last month, but there's a slight difference in another respect, and that difference is worth money. It's just so with printing; the difference between the good work and poor is slight to the unpracticed discernment, but it's a difference that counts every time. It costs money, but it makes more—it changes the printing bills from an expense to an investment.

SEASHORE EXCURSIONS

VIA PENNSYLVANIA LINES

Low Rates For Vacation Trips and Outings Along the Ocean.

Round Trip From Steubenville Only $10.

General excursions to the seashore at exceptionally low rates will be inaugurated by the Pennsylvania lines this summer, offering a grand opportunity for delightful outings at the most popular ocean resorts on the continent. This announcement will be good news to persons who may desire to enjoy their vacations at the seaside. They may visit Atlantic City, Cape May, Avalon, Sea Isle City, Anglesea, Ocean City, Holly Beach or Wildwood, at very low fare, round trip tickets to either resort being obtainable at the same rate.

The first excursion will be run Thursday, July 15, followed by others on July 19th, August 12 and 21. Round trip rates to either Atlantic City, Cape May, Avalon, Sea Island City, Anglesea, Ocean City, Wildwood or Holly Beach, New Jersey, will be $10 from Steubenville.

Excursion tickets will be good going on trains leaving Steubenville 4:24 a. m., 1:09 p. m., 2:15 p. m., and 4:08 p. m. The 4:45 a. m. train connects in Pittsburgh Union Station with a special train of parlor cars and coaches running through to Atlantic City via Delaware bridge route, arriving at Philadelphia at 6:25 p. m., Atlantic City, 8:55 p. m., making the run from Pittsburgh to the seashore in 12 hours. Excursionists may spend the night in Philadelphia and proceed to the shore by any regular train the following day. The 4:08 p. m. train has sleeping cars from Steubenville to Philadelphia without change, and will connect in Pittsburgh union station with Sleeping cars running through to Atlantic city.

The return limit will cover 12 days including date of sale, which will be ample for customary 10 days' vacation. For further desired information, apply to J. K. Dillon, D. P. A., Pittsburg, Pa., for particulars. Illustrated description of resorts to which excursion tickets will be sold, with list of hotels, and boarding houses at each, will be furnished upon application.

Low Rates.

Special reductions in fare over the Pennsylvania lines will be granted for numerous events to take place this summer in various parts of the United States, in addition to local excursions. Some of the points to which tickets will be sold and dates of sale are as follows:

To Nashville, Tenn., daily to October 15, for Tennessee Centennial and International exposition.

To Winona assembly grounds, Eagle Lake, (near Warsaw, Ind.) May 15 to August 31, for annual assembly and summer school.

To Indianapolis, September 8 and 9, for National Encampment Sons of Veterans.

The reduced rates over the Pennsylvania lines will not be restricted to members of the organizations mentioned, but may be taken advantage of by the public generally. Excursion tickets may be obtained at ticket offices on the Pennsylvania system and will also be sold over this route by connecting railways. Any Pennsylvania line ticket or passenger agent will furnish desired information concerning rates, time of trains, return limit, and other details, to all applicants, or the same may be obtained by addressing Samuel Moody, assistant general passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa.

Excursions to Nashville.

The Tennessee Centennial and International exposition will be in progress at Nashville, Tenn., from May until October inclusive. Special low rate round trip ticket will be sold via Pennsylvania lines for this event. Full particulars concerning fare, dates of sales, time of train, etc., may be obtained upon application to the nearest Pennsylvania line ticket agent, or by addressing D. C. MacWatters, district passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa. *

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Travis—a daughter.

H. A. Kernott and George Pope left this morning for Clintonville, Pa.

A new jewelry store will be opened in the Hotel Grand in the near future.

A large quantity of ware was sent to Pittsburg this morning by express.

A pleasant party of young people danced last evening at Rock Springs.

The district picnic of the Maccabees will be held at Silver Lake, August 26.

The town clock last evening was robbed in darkness because the circuit was burned out.

A catfish weighing 17 pounds was caught yesterday afternoon by an East End fisherman.

Manager Swaney removed the telephone from the office of A. W. Stevenson yesterday.

John Goddard last evening entertained a number of friends at his home on the campmeeting road.

There were more drunken people on the streets last evening than have been seen for many months.

The ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith, Gardendale, is seriously ill with typhoid fever.

The scarlet fever and diphtheria patients at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Moore are today much improved.

The police committee last evening looked over the plans for repairing city hall, but arrived at no conclusion.

The wheel of a straw wagon broke this morning when the vehicle was crossing the Horn switch.

A horse belonging to John Hontzleman died yesterday afternoon, and was buried along the river bank near the pump house.

There were nearly 1,800 pounds of baggage sent out on the early Pittsburg train this morning. The most of it went to Chautauqua.

Chief Morley and Fireman Petersen repaired a number of fire alarm wires, this morning, which were broken by the storm of last night.

A cripple arrived in the city last night, and today was sitting on an up-town corner seeking alms. He raked in a number of shakels.

The weeds along the Wellsville road which have annoyed street car passengers for many weeks, were cut down yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Head and Mr. Moneghan, the representatives of the East Liverpool, Fredericktown and Lisbon railroad, returned to the city today after a drive over the line.

James McKee, the official of the United Mine Workers of America who spoke at the rink last night, has taken little part in the strike beyond bringing out the men at Bergholz. He said that Salineville was quietly waiting the result, but sticking to a man.

Promiscuous shooting within the city limits should be stopped. Sunday evening as William Moore, janitor of the First National Bank building, was standing in his room in the rear of the building he heard a report and a bullet struck the building. He hastily raised the window but no person was in sight.

John Budd, the one-legged umbrella mender who was sent to the infirmary from this place last Friday afternoon, died at that institution last evening from pneumonia. The remains will be interred in the infirmary cemetery. He was very ill when in this city and should have had medical attention several weeks ago.

REVIEWED BY THE EMPERORS.

Parade of Troops In Honor of the Kaiser In Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 10.—The military review at Camp Krasnoe Solo in honor of the German emperor was a grand spectacle and came off in brilliant weather. The troops, under the command of Grand Duke Vladimir, were drawn up in a square, in the center of which was the imperial tent. The German emperor wore the uniform of the St. Petersburg grenadier guards, and the Russian emperor that of a uhlan of the guards. The dowager cararina, the cararina and the German empress were present.

Emperor Nicholas led the guards in front of Emperor William, Grand Duke Vladimir and the other grand dukes riding behind the czar, who subsequently led the Probrajensky regiment past the kaiser. The latter cried in Russian:

"I greet you, my brave fellows." The men saluted his majesty in response. Then Emperor William led the Viborg regiment past the czar, followed by the grand dukes, each leading his respective regiment.

Emperor William highly complimented Grand Duke Vladimir on the fine appearance of the troops and decorated several officers. Their majesties later witnessed a beautiful open air ballet on Olga island.

BEATING FATHER TIME.

The Mormon Bishop Was Frightened at the Railroad Speed.

Speed was once demonstrated on a western road in a fashion to curl the hair of at least one old Mormon bishop. The churchman considered it a phenomenon and got off the train as quickly as he could. He had bullwhipped across the plains in the early days, and, strange to say, had never ridden on a railroad train until the time when he entered upon his trip from Green river to San Francisco. The speed was, therefore, a revelation to him. He had never before seen anything so swift, and he was scared. About 12 miles from Ogden he asked the conductor for the time of day and was told that it was 7:35. He impressed this time forcibly on his mind.

Now, for a wonder, the western connection at Ogden was quickly made, and after the lapse of but a few minutes the San Francisco bound travelers were on their way Californiaward. Ogden had been left behind only a few miles, and the train was whooping along at a behind time rate of speed, when the old bishop, frightened and trembling, dared to ask the conductor what was the time of day.

If you have traveled westward, you know that at Ogden the time changes, and San Francisco time, one hour earlier, is adopted. The conductor had San Francisco time, and he said:

"It is 7:10—ten minutes after 7."

The old bishop, previously haunted by a dread of impending destruction because of the horrible rate of speed at which he was being whirled through space, rose with a wild cry and made for the door.

"Lemme off!" he cried. "It was 35 minutes after 7 an hour ago, an we're goin so fast we are goin faster than time can count itself. Lemme off!"

Had he really been going as fast as the old man had believed, he would surely have been beaten to bits as he jumped from the train. As it was, he was only rolled something like a half mile and was carried back to Ogden on a hand car. —Chicago Record.

THE FROZEN BREEZE.

A Strange Phenomenon Observed by a Lover of Nature.

Did you ever see a frozen breeze? You might have seen one if you had gone with me into the country one winter morning.

This was the way it came to be frozen: All night long the air had been laden with mist. Over the fields, in the hollows, all through the woods, even on top of the hills, the fog hung heavily. All that time the wind blew steadily, but not fiercely, from some northern quarter.

At nightfall the mercury fell below the freezing point, so that this mist, as it drifted through the trees, was frozen upon their branches and twigs. The elms, the oaks and the other leafless trees took their ice coating quite evenly, but the thick, impenetrable masses of the needles of the pine trees were covered noticeably only upon the sides toward the north or northwest, from which the wind came. The strong, steady breeze bent the branches to leeward, while it was icing them, and when the wind went down in the morning they all remained just there, leaning to the southward, ice and frozen to immovability, but looking just as if the wind were still steadily blowing.

Even in the afternoon, when the rain began to fall and the wind came from quite another quarter, that north wind of the night before still remained white and frozen over the pine woods, the pale, rigid corpse of a thing once keenly alive. —Listener in Country.

Transvaal Gold.

Of his recent extended study of the gold resources of South Africa Dr. Becker says that the Transvaal republic contains the largest gold deposits in the world. Within 15 miles of Johannesburg there is an amount of gold, practically in sight, estimated to be worth $3,500,000,000, or nearly as much as the entire volume of gold coin now in the world. The gold is extraordinarily uniform, as uniform as coal in an ordinary deposit, as shown by shafts which have been sunk to a depth of 1,800 feet and diamond drillings which have gone still farther. At present the gold is being taken out at the rate of $100,000,000 a year.

The most surprising news which Dr. Becker brings is the testimony of an American who was formerly his assistant in the geological survey, and who is now engaged in mining in the Transvaal, where he has made several millions of dollars. The American mining expert says to his knowledge and belief the gold deposits, instead of being 30 miles long—the region now in sight—is practically 1,200 miles long, except that in the rest of the region later deposits have come in over the gold. This, however, will not prevent economical mining, but will simply delay it. —Popular Science News.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Travis—a daughter.

H. A. Kernott and George Pope left this morning for Clintonville, Pa.

A new jewelry store will be opened in the Hotel Grand in the near future.

A large quantity of ware was sent to Pittsburgh this morning by express.

A pleasant party of young people danced last evening at Rock Springs.

The district picnic of the Maccabees will be held at Silver Lake, August 26.

The town clock last evening was robbed in darkness because the circuit was burned out.

A catfish weighing 17 pounds was caught yesterday afternoon by an East End fisherman.

Manager Swaney removed the telephone from the office of A. W. Stevenson yesterday.

John Goddard last evening entertained a number of friends at his home on the campmeeting road.

There were more drunken people on the streets last evening than have been seen for many months.

The ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith, Gardendale, is seriously ill with typhoid fever.

The scarlet fever and diphtheria patients at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Moore are today much improved.

The police committee last evening looked over the plans for repairing city hall, but arrived at no conclusion.

The wheel of a straw wagon broke this morning when the vehicle was crossing the Horn switch.

A horse belonging to John Hontzleman died yesterday afternoon, and was buried along the river bank near the pump house.

There were nearly 1,800 pounds of baggage sent out on the early Pittsburg train this morning. The most of it went to Chautauqua.

Chief Morley and Fireman Petersen repaired a number of fire alarm wires, this morning, which were broken by the storm of last night.

A cripple arrived in the city last night, and today was sitting on an up-town corner seeking alms. He raked in a number of shakels.

The weeds along the Wellsville road which have annoyed street car passengers for many weeks, were cut down yesterday afternoon.

James McKee, the official of the United Mine Workers of America who spoke at the rink last night, has taken little part in the strike beyond bringing out the men at Bergholz. He said that Salineville was quietly waiting the result, but sticking to a man.

Promiscuous shooting within the city limits should be stopped. Sunday evening as William Moore, janitor of the First National Bank building, was standing in his room in the rear of the building he heard a report and a bullet struck the building. He hastily raised the window but no person was in sight.

John Budd, the one-legged umbrella mender who was sent to the infirmary from this place last Friday afternoon, died at that institution last evening from pneumonia. The remains will be interred in the infirmary cemetery. He was very ill when in this city and should have had medical attention several weeks ago.

Those interested in the Klondyke gold region can have full information respecting the same by calling at the News Review office and securing the handsome little book "Klondyke Nuggets," written by Joseph Ladue, founder of Dawson city, N. W. T. The book will cost you but 10 cents, and is a regular "gold mine" of information.

TO OUR BUSINESS MEN

When You Want Job Work, Come and See Us.

With thousands of dollars invested in our job department, we have the most complete job office in all this section of Ohio, and we simply defy competition. The News Review has honestly won the verdict, from our business men, of turning out the finest job work in the city. We buy material in large lots, and pay spot cash for the same, and, for the same material, we defy competition in prices. If you want cheap material, we will furnish it to you. If you want fine material, we have it always on hand. We pay our skilled workmen the highest prices paid the craft in East Liverpool, HIGHER THAN THE UNION DEMANDS and no union office can underbid us. The proof of the pudding is in the eating thereof. Let us give you an estimate.

REVIEWED BY THE EMPERORS, Parade of Troops in Honor of the Kaiser in Russia.

St. PETERSBURG, Aug. 10.—The military review at Camp Krasnoe Solo in honor of the German emperor was a grand spectacle and came off in brilliant weather. The troops, under the command of Grand Duke Vladimir, were drawn up in a square, in the center of which was the imperial tent. The German emperor wore the uniform of the St. Petersburg grenadier guards, and the Russian emperor that of a uhlan of the guards. The dowager czarina, the czarina and the German empress were present.

Emperor Nicholas led the guards in front of Emperor William, Grand Duke Vladimir and the other grand dukes riding behind the czar, who subsequently led the Probrajensky regiment past the kaiser. The latter cried in Russian:

"I greet you, my brave fellows." The men saluted his majesty in response. Then Emperor William led the Viborg regiment past the czar, followed by the grand dukes, each leading his respective regiment.

BEATING FATHER TIME.

The Mormon Bishop Was Frightened at the Railroad Speed.

Speed was once demonstrated on a western road in a fashion to curl the hair of at least one old Mormon bishop. The churchman considered it a phenomenon and got off the train as quickly as he could. He had bullockbacked across the plains in the early days, and, strange to say, had never ridden on a railroad train until the time when he entered upon his trip from Green river to San Francisco. The speed was, therefore, a revelation to him. He had never before seen anything so swift, and he was scared. About 12 miles from Ogden he asked the conductor for the time of day and was told that it was 7:35. He impressed this time forcibly on his mind.

Now, for a wonder, the western connection at Ogden was quickly made, and after the lapse of but a few minutes the San Francisco bound travelers were on their way Californiaward. Ogden had been left behind only a few miles, and the train was whooping along at a behind time rate of speed, when the old bishop, frightened and trembling, dared to ask the conductor what was the time of day.

If you have traveled westward, you know that at Ogden the time changes, and San Francisco time, one hour earlier, is adopted. The conductor had San Francisco time, and he said:

"It is 7:10—ten minutes after 7." The old bishop, previously haunted by a dread of impending destruction because of the horrible rate of speed at which he was being whirled through space, rose with a wild cry and made for the door.

"Lemme off!" he cried. "It was 35 minutes after 7 an hour ago, an we're goin so fast we are goin faster than time can count itself. Lemme off!"

Had he really been going as fast as the old man had believed, he would surely have been beaten to bits as he jumped from the train. As it was, he was only rolled something like a half mile and was carried back to Ogden on a hand car.—Chicago Record.

THE FROZEN BREEZE.

A Strange Phenomenon Observed by a Lover of Nature.

Did you ever see a frozen breeze? You might have seen one if you had gone with me into the country one winter morning.

This was the way it came to be frozen: All night long the air had been laden with mist. Over the fields, in the hollows, all through the woods, even on top of the hills, the fog hung heavily. All that time the wind blew steadily, but not fiercely, from some northern quarter.

At nightfall the mercury fell below the freezing point, so that this mist, as it drifted through the trees, was frozen upon their branches and twigs. The elms, the oaks and the other leafless trees took their ice coating quite evenly, but the thick, impenetrable masses of the needles of the pine trees were covered noticeably only upon the sides toward the north or northwest, from which the wind came. The strong, steady breeze bent the branches to leeward, while it was icing them, and when the wind went down in the morning they all remained just there, leaning to the southward, ice and frozen to immovability, but looking just as if the wind were still steadily blowing.

Even in the afternoon, when the rain began to fall and the wind came from quite another quarter, that north wind of the night before still remained white and frozen over the pine woods, the pale, rigid corpse of a thing once keenly alive.—Listener in Country.

Transvaal Gold.

Of his recent extended study of the gold resources of South Africa Dr. Becker says that the Transvaal republic contains the largest gold deposits in the world. Within 15 miles of Johannesburg there is an amount of gold, practically in sight, estimated to be worth $3,500,000,000, or nearly as much as the entire volume of gold coin now in the world. The gold is extraordinarily uniform, as uniform as coal in an ordinary deposit, as shown by shafts which have been sunk to a depth of 1,800 feet and diamond drillings which have gone still farther. At present the gold is being taken out at the rate of $100,000,000 a year.

The most surprising news which Dr. Becker brings is the testimony of an American who was formerly his assistant in the geological survey, and who is now engaged in mining in the Transvaal, where he has made several millions of dollars. The American mining expert says to his knowledge and belief the gold deposits, instead of being 30 miles long—the region now in sight—is practically 1,200 miles long, except that in the rest of the region later deposits have come in over the gold. This, however, will not prevent economical mining, but will simply delay it.—Popular Science News.

FREE SILVER MAN WANTED.

A Conference of New York Democrats Over Mayoralty.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—There will be a conference in Brooklyn to-morrow night of representatives of all the Democratic organizations in New York which adhere to the national Democratic platform adopted by the convention at Chicago that nominated Bryan for the presidency.

The purpose of the conference, as announced, is to organize for the municipal campaign this fall, and the hope is expressed by the leaders in the movement that Tammany hall will be forced to acquiesce in the selection of a candidate for mayor of greater New York who shall be an avowed advocate of the free coinage of silver.
